

Resident surprises 86-year-old Lenexa friend

NORTON MANOR

By DORIS MIZELL
Sharon Bennett spent Sept. 4, 5, 6 visiting friends in Topeka and Lenexa. Marybelle Rowley's birthday was Sept. 5 at her Living Skills in Lenexa. She was 86 and was sure surprised with Sharon's visit party for Tegan Schmidt.

Doris Mizell had a phone call from her daughter Roberta last week telling her she was a great-grand grandma again. This is her 6th. Aubery Lynn Malle was born Sept. 30. This makes 3 boys and 3 girls now for Doris. Roberta is the great grandmother.

Lester Mizell took his Mother Doris Mizell to the Clayton bazaar Saturday evening. Doris was one of the helpers with the baked foods and crafts.

Doris Mizell received an invitation to the initiation of her granddaughter Peggy Foster into the Kappa Omicron Nu Honor Society on Sunday afternoon. She will now be a member of Omicron Theta Chapter of the College of Human Ecology, Kansas State University. I was really sorry that I wasn't able to attend but am very proud of her accomplishments.

Mary Porter and Dorothy VanFossen of Marysville, Mo. visited Mary Keith Thursday to Sunday.

Saturday they went to visit another cousin, May and Larry Keen in Kearney, Neb. While here they also visited Lena and James Skrdlant and Clara Shewey. All cousins.

August 24, Doris Mizell accompanied Ray and Ruth Mizell to Abilene. Others going were Lester Mizell, David and Jacob Mizell and Brittany Otter. We met Jordan Mizell and Cherry, Manhattan; Aaron and Priscilla Mizell, Wamego; and Carolyn Linsenmeyer, Beatrice, Neb. at the pizza hut for lunch. After lunch, except Aaron and Priscilla, we all attended the musical play "Quilters" at the Great Plains Theatre. This play took us back to dust bowl days and building log cabins and brought out different activities in the quilt blocks they were making.

On Aug. 30, Bozie and Deloros Bozarth attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Michaela Waggoner and Shawn Smith of Plainville. The ceremony was held in the Catholic Church. They have two children Maddison, age 11, and Gage, 18 months.

Other family attending the ceremony were Curtis, son of the Bozarths, and Marla Bozarth and son Eli from Norton; Denise, daughter of the Bozarths, and Dave Whisman, from Plainville; Mandi Dobson, sister of the bride, and son Cael, from Plainville; Danielle and Mark Waggoner, brother of the bride, from Plainville; Julie and Matt Waggoner, brother of the bride and daughter Kaylor of Salina.

Lester Mizell and Doris Mizell drove to Manhattan on Aug. 28. There they met Carolyn Linsenmeyer, Beatrice, Neb., and were invited out for supper by Jordan Mizell at Carlos O'Kelly's where Jordan works. We were joined also by Cherry. We then went to the apartment of Peggy Foster where we were spending the night.

As it so happened her folks also showed up to spend the night as they had a funeral to go to the next day. The next morning Lester, Doris and Carolyn drove to Branson, Mo. where they attended the 3rd Mizell reunion.

One of the highlights of the weekend was having lunch on the showboat on Sunday. On returning home on Monday we met Patty and Jerry Foster, Jennings, Jared Foster, of Shawnee, Peggy Foster, Manhattan and Doug and Annette Jenby and Josh, Olathe, for lunch in Kansas City.

In spite of high gas prices we had Mizell's there from Washington, North Carolina, Alabama, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Illinois, and Kansas. I've probably missed some state but they'll never know.

(Editor's note: Some of these items may be dated, but don't blame Doris. When Carolyn Plotts retired a while back, I assumed a lot of what she had done while employed by The Telegram. And she did a lot. I am getting into the swing of things, so you can expect timely reports as they are received from here on in. Thanks for your patience. -td)

NEW ALMELO

Church choirs finished

By BETTY OTTER
Correspondent

The parishioners of St. Joseph parish held a work day on Oct. 4. Several projects were going on at the same time — trees were trimmed; the roof of the Parish Hall was repaired; and several tombstones at the cemetery were straightened. Lunch was served for the workers.

Brandon Otter was recently home on leave from Iraq, visiting his parents, Frank and Lavonne Otter, and his brother and sister, Josh and Gabby Otter, as well as his grandparents, Marion and Marilyn Otter and other relatives and friends. He returned to a base in Germany.

Many people of the New Almelo area attended the United Parish bazaar in Lenora on Oct. 4. They enjoyed a delicious meal and the social gathering of visiting.

Family visiting the Alfred and Betty Otter home over the weekend were Tom Otter, DeSoto and Jim Moss, Smith Center.
