

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Bainter Sept. 9, 1922 - Nov. 27, 2008

Dorothy Bainter, 86, of WaKeeney, passed away Nov. 27, 2008, at the Trego County-Lemke Memorial Hospital in WaKeeney. Mrs. Bainter was born Sept. 9, 1922.

On Dec. 21, 1941, Dorothy and Norman Bainter were united in marriage in Oberlin. They made their home in Jennings, where they farmed and owned/operated the Bainter Funeral Home from 1959 until 1976. They moved to WaKeeney in 1986, and spent several winters in Aransas Pass, Texas. Mr. Bainter passed away March 11, 1990.

She is survived by three children, Janice Pope, Lyman Bainter and Everet Bainter.

Funeral services were held Monday at the United Methodist Church in WaKeeney. Burial was in the Jennings Cemetery. A memorial has been established to the Dorothy Bainter Memorial Fund.

Arrangements were handled through the Enfield Funeral Home, Norton.

Maynard Max Pflieger May 15, 1933 - Nov. 24, 2008

Maynard Max Pflieger passed away on Nov. 24, 2008 at the Logan Manor Nursing Home in Logan at the age of 75. He was born on May 15, 1933 in Densmore to Fredrick Martin and Amalie "Mollie" (Veh) Pflieger.

He was baptized on June 4, 1933 at the St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church. He attended Pike's Peak country school for eight years. He graduated from Norton Community High School and then attended Fort Hays State University for five years. He received a degree in Agriculture and Industrial Arts. From 1956 to 1958, he served in the United States Army and came back to work on the family farm.

On July 29, 1977, he and Hazel McCue were married in Logan at the St. Peter's Lutheran Church. He moved to Logan but continued to farm.

He enjoyed the many activities involved in farm life: preparing the soil for planting, harvesting the crops, and tending his cattle among the grasslands were the highlights of his life. He also enjoyed traveling and spending time with his close friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Delmar.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel, of the home; daughter Faye and husband, Chris Miller of Hays; sisters-in-law Betty Cadoret of Stockton, Ruby Pflieger of Norton, Shirley McCue of Elkhart, Ind., and Virginia McCue of Bryon Center, Mich.; aunts Mildred Hance of Hays and Ann Nelson, Scott City; along with a number of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Card of Thanks

We are deeply grateful to all of you for the cards, calls, prayers, food, flowers and memorial contributions we've received since Maynard's death. Your friendship and support have given us strength, and your kind words have been a comfort during this time of sadness.

Very special thanks to the ladies from the First Christian and Lutheran Churches for providing lunch following the service.

The family of Maynard Pflieger

Janice Kathleen Hanson Sept. 28, 1938 - Nov. 30, 2008

Janice Kathleen Hanson, daughter of Martin and Laurena (Wegener) Klotz, was born Sept. 28, 1938, in Phillips County, and passed away at the Norton County Hospital in Norton, on Nov. 30, 2008, at the age of 70.

She grew up in Norton County, attended rural grade school, and graduated from the Norton Community High School. She also attended Fort Hays State University for three years. On August 25, 1962, Janice and Robert Hanson were united in marriage in Norton. They made their home in Wichita, and later in Las Cruces, N.M. In 1974, they returned to the family farm in Norton where they lived for 33 years. Janice was a tax preparer and had worked for Zwickle Accounting for many years. They had recently moved into Norton.

She was a member of the Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church in Norton where she was a member of the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society and enjoyed teaching Sunday School. She loved playing the organ in church and enjoyed helping the children in 4-H as a 4-H project leader.

Survivors include: her husband, Robert Hanson, Norton; her mother, Laurena Klotz, Norton; two daughters and their husbands, Susan and Greg Shilling, Westphalia, and Yvonne and Mark Beer, Falls Church, Va.; one son, Stephen Hanson, Overland Park; four grandchildren, Camille and Cameron Shilling, Matthew and Bethany Beer; one brother, Paul Klotz, Topeka; other relatives and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Martin Klotz.

Services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church in Norton. Burial will be in the Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery in Norton County. Memorials may be sent to New Beginnings and Lutherans For Life. Friends may call the Enfield Funeral Home in Norton on Wednesday from 3 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. The family will receive friends at Enfield Funeral Home on Wednesday from 6 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Decisions, decisions...

Matthew and Veronica Bieker waited patiently to get their cookies and hot cocoa as their mom, Michelle Beiker, helped them choose. Norton Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors Georgia Rowh and Jeannie Poage readied the hot chocolate for the Christmas Opening Friday night inside the county courthouse.
