Porkburger Special big deal at Norton County fair

It's a tradition - the 4-H Pork Roast and Porkburger Special.

The 4-Hers and 4-H volunteers want to provide a thank you to the businesses that have provided support for the 4-H club program throughout the year by sharing pork with the public.

Husky Hogs is co-sponsoring the event by providing the pork and preparing it.

The 4-H Porkburger Special is scheduled for Wednesday starting at 5:30 p.m. at Elmwood Park. The menu will include porkburgers, baked beans, chips and iced tea or water.

The cost is $3.50 per meal with an extra sandwich costing $1.50. The funds will be used to help the 4-H'ers pay for trips and events for them and their families.

The 4-H Clubs of Norton County invite your family to join others at the 4-H Pork Roast Special on Wednesday.

Also on the schedule that afternoon and evening is the 4-H Ambassador and FFA Petting Zoo and Exotic Animal Display from 3:30-4:30 p.m.

At 5:30 p.m. there will be a free watermelon feed sponsored by Jamboree Foods.

The Ranch Rodeo is at 7:30 p.m. at the Equine Facility and the Home Owned Carnival will be running from 6:30 p.m.-11:30 p.m., and the exhibits in the 4-H Building will be open for viewing until 9:00 p.m.

On the Front

Tony Anderson anxiously awaited the signal to show off his cat during the pet show on Monday held at the Andbe Home. Tony won a red ribbon for his cat in the junior category. The pet show was called a huge success.
