LoraArnold hosted a 13th birthday supper for her great-grandson, Jordon Baker, at the Cardinal Bar and Grill. Besides the honored guest, those present were his parents Mark and JuliAnna Baker, brothers Nathan and Noah, and sister Marissa Baker; John and Brenda Arnold and Estella Harold.

Dorothy Ward drove Bee Nelson to the Norton County Hospital where Bee had a plantar wart taken was heard from the Docking In-Ward at the Hidden Dragon. Bee also made aware of the posting and Dorothy made it home early afternoon.

Information submitted by Bob Strevey states that on Friday, June 12, the U.S. Highway 36 Association held their annual meeting in Atwood. Representatives from the 13 counties in Kansas that border Highway 36 heard reports from the Kansas Department of Transportation about work on the highway that is scheduled and what has been completed. A report off her left foot. Of course, Doro- stitute which is preparing a study thy had to wait around till Bee of possible changes to Highway was dismissed so some shopping 36. As the four lane highway is was done, errands were run and completed in Missouri, pressures Dempewolf, Rose Riffle, Oberlin; lunch with Wava Reames, Wava's are growing to extend the four of weight limits on bridges in eastern Decatur County. Some of the bridges are very old and are deteriorating so bridge limits are likely to be lowered. Our state legislators warned that the state revenues are falling and further budget cuts are likely. Money for roads will be cut further. Dave, Patty and Sam Stapp attended the wedding of Shane Montgomery and Crystal Mannebaugh at Leoville.

Dave, Patty and Sam Stapp were lunch guests of Marian Dempewolf for a barbecue Saturday noon. Other guests were Bob Spencer and Addison Schliep, grandson, James Crum, and Frank lanes across Kansas. They were McCook; and Greg Dempewolf, Darcie Zuck and Jada, Culbertson, Neb.

Jeff Magers and Joy Luoto met Jeff's parents at the Cardinal Café on Saturday for a delicious fried chicken and catfish dinner. Later they visited and played cards at the Magers.

Wava Reames, grandson James, and Jody Lyon journeved to Wichita Friday. Jody went to visit her daughter and family, and Wava to meet her daughter and granddaughter, Shawna and Shawnda,
