"Pray in Critical Moments"

Christians who have seriously studied the prayer life of Christ from the beginning of His ministry have found that Jesus "Prayed at Critical Moments in His Life."

In Luke 3:21 we see Jesus praying at a time just before He is to be tempted by the devil for forty days. Luke wrote, "When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as He was praying heaven was opened." Verse 22 goes on with "...and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove." It is important to note; Jesus was not praying prayers of repentance of sin here. Jesus knew that He needed the Holy Spirit's power at this critical moment of His life as He was about to be tempted by the devil. In Luke 4:1 we read that, "Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert, where for forty days He was tempted by the devil."

Christ puts honor upon prayer and Christians should take heed to their Lord's example. The temptation of the devil in the desert was a critical moment in Christ's life and for His church in the future. Therefore, it was blanketed in prayer. Jesus knew the power which was promised to Him from the Father and the fact is, the Trinity always works in unison. The Father always directing with the Son always obeying and the Holy Spirit always leading and empowering.

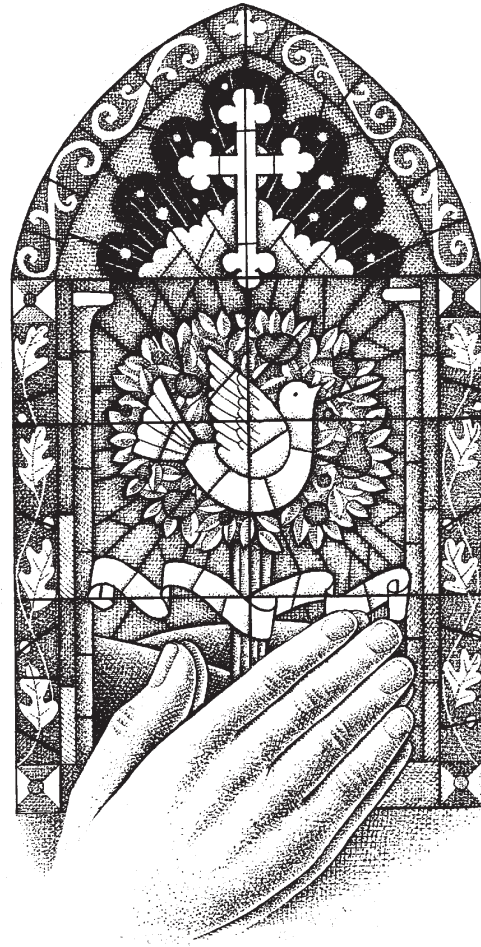

Matthew Henry wrote: "This is sensible evidence for [Christ's] encouragement in His work. Our Lord Jesus was now to receive a greater measure of the Spirit... We have reason to think that Christ now prayed for this manifestation of God's favor to Him. Jesus prayed for the discovery of His Father's favor toward Him and for the descent of the Holy Spirit. What was promised to Christ, He must obtain by prayer." Dr. Lightfoot suggests in his exposition that "This is a powerful demonstration of the Trinity. I would like to explain it this way; here we see God the Father pleased with the Son and the Holy Spirit's power coming upon the obedient Christ."

Christians are not beyond critical moments in their lives and temptations from the devil. Peter warns us with "...for the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour." (Peter 5:8)

In A Critical Moment, Pray!!
