"Pray for Divine Revelation"

Another critical moment when Christ prayed was at the time God revealed to Peter of our Lord's Messiah-ship. Luke 9: 18 - 20 says, "Once Jesus was praying in private and His disciples were with Him, He asked them, 'who do the crowds say I am?'" After the disciples had replied, He then asked, "But, what about you?... Who do you say I am?" In Matthew's gospel regarding this time in history, we read Peter's answer, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (Matthew 16:16) Jesus' reply to Peter was, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by My Father in heaven." (Matthew 16:17)

Christ often spoke with His disciples about the great things of God. Jesus prays and He prays with His disciples. It is safe to say He probably prayed for them to receive Divine direction from God. The reason I say this is because of the Greek word for "revealed" (apokalupto) in Matthew 16:17, "...for this was not revealed to you by man." "Revealed" applies to supernatural revelation.

If Christ knew that His disciples needed supernatural revelation from His Father, how much should we be in prayer, petitioning God to give supernatural revelation of the preaching or teaching of God's Word?

Our Lord knew that God needs to give supernatural revelation to those to whom He speaks. How much should we be in prayer for the Sunday morning service, petitioning the Lord to give "Divine Revelation"? I have been in churches which have discovered the power that comes when the church breaks the cancer of traditionalism and grasps the vision of praying just before the church services begin - for an hour. These churches enjoy live vibrant song services, see God's provision, are hungry for the proclaiming and teaching of God's Word and enjoy the benefits of the power of prayer.

Christians are Biblically called to worship God in spirit and truth and we must desire the Holy Spirit's enabling to sing, give, pray by faith and learn from the proclaiming of God's Word.
