

Norton High School shows its school spirit

Senior J.D Gall (above) led the "Fighting Blue Jays" onto Travis Field prior to kickoff in the Homecoming win over Osborne as Norton prepared to defend "their house"! Enjoying themselves on the Sophomore Class Float (right) during the Homecoming Parade were, from left, classmates, Taylor Meder, Jordan Wahlmeier, Damien Davis, Tiffany Eagleburger and Mariah Farber. Norton twirlers (below right) Rachel Shepard, left, and Bekah Streck entertained the Homecoming crowd on Friday night with their exhibition of twirling fiery batons. The peppy Norton

Community High School Band (bottom) led the colorful Homecoming Parade to the Rally site. Norton senior football players (below left) Ashton Draper, left, and Connor Pfanenstiel had some crazy moves as they performed in one of the humorous skits at the rally. Norton's Homecoming rally at the County Courthouse on Friday afternoon attracted a large crowd of fans, players, other students, administrators and photographers as they built up a head of steam for the big game that evening with Osborne.

—Telegram photos by Dana Paxton and Dick Boyd

