Norton broke the tie in the third skit!
Featured speakers were parents of the Norton senior football players.
"We've got a pretty good team. We need to keep it altogether," said Terry Cook, father of senior player Tyler Cook.
"Look at your fellow teammates and get ready to battle," said Denny Draper, father of senior player Ashton Draper. "This is your night to lead your team."
"When you tackle and block the opponents, help them up so they'll remember you. Make wise and smart decisions tonight and in the future."
"Tell yourselves that you don't consider yourself as the best player in the world and that you're not obsessed with individual titles but that you're much more interested in being part of a Blue Jay winning team," said John Gall, father of senior player J.D. Gall.
"Keep believing in yourselves and working hard," said Dan Pfannenstiel, father of senior player Connor Pfannenstiel.
"Play a good, hard game but play fair," said Terry Romey, father of senior player Jake Romey. "Win, lose or draw, we're very proud of you."
"It's been a great move for our family to Norton," said Rudy Perez, father of senior player Zane Perez. "We've learned a lot about what we have here in Norton. We have a very special tradition. Osborne will be coming into our house and we need to let them know it's our house."
"Look at your teammates and let them know you're going to give 150 percent tonight. Let's make it a long night for them."

"The quality of any man's life has got to be a full measure of that man's personal commitment to excellence and to victory regardless of what field they may be in."

Claire Herman, mother of senior player Marcus Herman, had a few short words of encouragement accompanied by cookies for everyone!

As a conclusion, the players gathered together to do the traditional chant, "Proud to be a Blue Jay!"

Also during the rally, Amanda Ray, student body president, announced the Spirit Week Best Dressed winners. They are: Monday - Geek Day, Bekah Streck and Mariah Farber; Tuesday - Tacky Day, Matt Carlton and the water tower and re-drilling wells in the well field. The work on the water tower has been completed, but Ellis said the wells have not been started yet.

Bethany Winkel; Wednesday - Twin/Dynamic Duo Day, Dakota Dreher and Spencer Shirk and Bethany Roy and Kendra Engelbert; Thursday - Sports Team Day, Casey Robison and Alyssa Boser; Friday - Blue and Yellow Day, Zoey Meyers and Matt Carlton.

Downtown Poster Contest winners were: first, "Punish the Pups", Anna Cummings, Jacob Mizell, Andrew Otter; second, "Bulldogs Drool", Kelsey Nuzum, Liberty Stephens; third, "Send them to the Pound", Matt Carlton, Maia Carlson, Kelsey Morel, David Mizell.

Parade floats winners were: senior class, first; junior class, second; sophomore class, third and freshman class, fourth.

Rob Lawson, city administrator, said this is the best solution to the debt problem.

"It's money we will get from the stimulus package, not money we will have to borrow," he said.

"We're not done looking for other options. Right now this is the best fix for Norton," Lawson said.
