Throne of a Holy God

In approaching the court of God one must remember that it is the throne of a holy God. The King of kings should always be approached in reverence. There are several passages of Scripture that show the response of great men who received a divine grace from God. In the year king Uzziah died, Isaiah saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of His robe filled the temple. Angels were flying above Him and calling one to another, "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord Almighty..." (Isaiah 6:4)

In this Biblical record of the angels calling to one another we read of the prophet Isaiah getting a vision of God and receiving the commission to proclaim a message to the Lord's people. Isaiah's work was about to grow. Perhaps the Lord saw fit to renew Isaiah's commission through a vision because, like most prophets, he had seen very little of what man calls "success in ministry". Maybe he had considered giving up so God saw fit to renew his commission through a vision.

Whatever had been in the heart of the prophet Isaiah was overridden by what God wanted proclaimed about Himself, God is "Holy, Holy, Holy." When something is repeated three times in Scripture you had better take note of it.

While attending the North American Conference for Itinerant Evangelists (NACIE 94) in Louisville, Kentucky I attended a very large prayer meeting; nearly 2,500 evangelists and their spouses were seeking the Lord in true heartfelt prayer. As we were praying the Holy Spirit came with power upon that service. We were able to get past denominationalism, legalism, and traditionalism. One man who was sitting not far in front of me went running to the front, fell on his face and began to weep and cry out to God. This visitation of the Holy Spirit came on a day when we had spent the whole day on "the messenger of the gospel and his need for the holiness of God in his life."

Charles Spurgeon wrote, "In prayer we are to come to the Throne of Grace in reverence. Rebels with unrepentant sin in their hearts and those who will not leave their pride should not come before the Throne."

Approach God's Throne in Holiness!
