Thanksgiving Worship: Sing to the Lord

Thanksgiving worship is Holy Spirit illumination of singing to the Lord. Psalm 147:7 says, "Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make music to our God on the harp." David, a man after God's heart (Acts 13:22) wrote, "I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High. (Psalm 9:2) The Holy Spirit moved through David, the great song writer, to set the heartbeat of our worship, "I will give thanks to the LORD because of His righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High." (Psalm 7:17)

Singing about and to the Lord is not just an Old Testament commandment, but a New Testament exhortation. Romans 15:9-11 says, "Therefore, I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing hymns to your name." Again, it says, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people." And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and sing praises to Him, all you peoples." Ephesians 5:19 - 20 says, "Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Satan is very successful in disrupting the church song service. He is amazingly able to cause people to focus on themselves as they approach the song service or even in their private time of listening to music. Some complain about how long or how short the song service is, they complain about the hymns, the choruses, the style, the instruments and set their mind to just tolerate the song service and not participate in spirit and truth.

The Body of Christ cannot give what they do not have. The song service is a reflection of the worship in singing about and to the Lord throughout the week prior to the service. It is the song leader who has enjoyed worship unto the Lord with those songs who will enjoy the Holy Spirit's enabling for people to be aware of God's presence.

What is your heart attitude toward the song service? What is your heart in preparation toward the Song service and how is your participation in the song service?

Sing to the Lord!
