years. Next year we hope to have more teams and will usually have enough tables set up for 25 teams. We would like to thank all of the wonderful vendors who donated prizes, KQNK Radio and Marvin Matchett for co-sponsoring and providing MC service, and lastly, all the team members for coming out to support our organization and have some fun in the bargain.

Norton County Arts Council holds a variety of events for all

The Norton County Arts Council, Inc. has an exciting month ahead. The annual Arts and Crafts Fair will be held tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Both the Armory and the 4-H Building will be showing a variety of items including candles, jewelry, afghans, diaper cakes, knives, yard ornaments, home décor and much more. Craft Fair Chairman Gary Erlenbusch said, "Carol and I have traveled extensively to find crafters that have new and unusual items. There should be something for everyone at our annual Arts and Crafts Fair."

"Elvis Cruise" in 2007. Joseph recently returned from a performance in Wales, England and will be headlining the Elvis Cruise from Tampa, Fla. to Cozumel, Mexico Nov. 12-16. He will be taking his show to Branson on Feb. 1, 2010. Tickets prices for adults are $12.50 in advance and $15 at the door; junior and senior high students are $5 and age 12 and under are $2. There is no reserved seating. The doors open at 6 p.m. For more information, see the ad in today's paper or call Carol Erlenbusch at 785-877-5611.
