Thanksgiving Worship
Pray to the Lord

The second truth to enjoy in Thanksgiving worship is Holy Spirit illumination of praying to the Lord. 1 Thessalonians 2:8 says, "I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands in prayer, without anger or disputing." The Holy Spirit through David exhorts us, "My heart says of you, "Seek His face!" Proverbs 15:8 tells us, "The Lord detests the sacrifices of the wicked, but the prayer of the upright pleases Him."

The whole counsel of God's Word teaches us that prayer, which includes the attitudes of the human spirit in its approach to God, is a blessing to Him as we adore Him, confess to Him, praise Him and bring supplication to Him. The highest blessing to the spiritual heart is communion with God, in the Name of Christ as led by the Holy Spirit.

"The Biblical doctrine of prayer emphasizes the character of God, the necessity of man being under the covenant relationship with the Lord, thus enabling repentant mankind to enjoy the privileges of and understanding his obligations in relation to the Lord." (New Bible Dictionary)

The first step to offering true prayers of thanksgiving to God is to approach the Throne simply with confidence in only the shed blood of Christ. Coming in the name of Christ gives Christians assurance, safety and welcome into the presence of God.

It is a good idea to open prayer by saying, "Father, we come into your presence, not because of what we have accomplished or with great plans, but simply under the blood of Christ and we thank you that at this moment you are our 'Father' not our 'Judge.'"

Thanksgiving prayers to the Lord are prayers offered for God and Christ's glory, prayers that reveal Christ in ones life and in the lives of those who are being prayed for. Christians who show true thankfulness are Christians who pray as Jesus did, "...yet not my will, but yours be done." (Luke 42:22)

Make this Thanksgiving season, a season of prayer, prayer that pleases God, made in Christ's Name for the good of those you pray for!
Pray to the Lord!
