THANK YOU

I WANT TO THANK everyone that sent cards and attended my 100th birthday openhouse. I enjoyed seeing and hearing from everyone. — Dorothy Snyder — 11/27 —

THE FAMILY OF ELEANOR HALES would like to say thank you for the many acts of kindness extended to us during Mom's illness. Each one is very special and continues to help us through a difficult time and transition since Mom's passing. We would like to give a special thanks to the ambulance staff, hospital staff, and doctors. We would like to also give a very special thanks to hospice and the Andbe Home staff. We are so fortunate to have all of these services in our community. Your support is priceless. God bless each one of you. — Sherry and Richard Rushton, Konnie and John Jarvis, Marlin Hales and Nanette Hewitt. — 11/27 —

AS A SOFTWARE VENDOR to substance abuse treatment providers, Valley Hope Association must comply with regulatory standards developed for behavioral health software. Accordingly, Valley Hope Association is seeking applicants for the new job position called Software Certification Administrator (SCA). The SCA will ensure internally developed Valley Hope software meets certification and interoperability standards. The SCA will also help design and write software development work orders, conduct tests of internally developed software against required certification standards, and ensure internally developed software meets interoperability standards required for external electronic health information exchange. This is not a computer programmer job position but a working knowledge of the XML, C++, or any other programming language is helpful (but not required). The SCA will interact routinely with members of the software development team to facilitate an integrated approach to certification and interoperability compliance. A Bachelors degree in computer science business, or related field is required. Experience/ Training may be substituted for the degree. Prior experience should include demonstrated ability to learn technical skills and effectively achieve related objectives using learned skills. Starting annual salary is up to $40k DOE with an outstanding benefits package. This position is based at the corporate office in Norton, Kansas, but requires ability to travel. Applicant deadline is November 30, 2009. email resume to jobs@valleyhope.org. EOE — N 11/27 —
