Mary Sturdy. "I think it's a great thing the county is doing," said Karen Peterson, Pamida pharmacy technician.

All county residents, regardless, of age or income, can use the card.

Wyatt said there is no cost to taxpayers for the discount program.

"It's going to be a real help to our customers who don't have insurance," said Pamida Pharmacist

JENNINGS NEWS

By LOUISE CRESSLER The Jennings community extends sympathy to the family of Phil Morel, Norton. His mother, Eleanor Morel, brother, Bob, and sister, Diane Carter, all live in Jennings. His sister, Teresa Reyher, lives in Lubbock, Texas and brother, Pat, lives in Norton.

Phil's funeral was Nov. 21 in Norton.

An interesting yo-yo demonstration and informative talk was given Sunday morning at the United Methodist Church by Matt Johnson from Youthville. It was followed by a potluck dinner and the decorating of the church for Christmas. Ann DuBois, Abbie and Madison, Norton, attended church with her parents, Ken and Julie Carter.

The Jennings City Council met Thursday, in the Sunflower Senior Center.

Storm

(Continued from Page 1) pervisor Tom Brannan said crews were out Sunday after the snow stopped and again on Tuesday. Blades went out Wednesday.

He estimated the storm left 12-15 inch drifts and said it wasn't as bad as past storms, although the cold temperatures and winds created problems.

"It's been hard on equipment," Brannan said.

Brannan said the road department focuses on clearing roads in front of houses before moving on to other areas.

Requests can be made to the road department.

"We try to get to them that day," he said.

Many residents were concerned about road conditions, especially those who had to commute this week.

Paul Lueschen planned to go to Oberlin Wednesday night. He hoped conditions would be good for driving.

"I don't want to get stuck in a ditch," he said.
