"A Word for Desperate Times"
Believe the Bible

The first step to finding strength in the Lord in desperate times is to believe what the Bible says about Him. Hebrews 13:5b - 6 says, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you. So we say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?'" Psalm 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." Psalms 18: 1-3 says, "I love you, O LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies."

Psalm 18 is a song offered by King David who sung this song to the Lord when God delivered him from his enemies. Christian or Non-Christian, you have three enemies that haunt your soul, the flesh, the world view and the lies of the devil. Satan is a master at using desperate times to cause you to make choices that are a sin against God.

David's song of praise to the Lord opens with a Hebrew word translated, "I love you (raham)." In its active verb form (ruhamah), it can mean to find mercy. The word pictures a deep, kindly sympathy and sorrow felt for another who has been struck with affliction or misfortune, accompanied with a desire to relieve the suffering. This active verb occurs forty-seven times in the Old Testament, with God being by far the common subject and His afflicted people the object. The phrase, "I love you" that David is expressing communicates a full understanding of this and it is an intimacy based on past experiences.

What the Holy Spirit wants you to grasp is that David was expressing a supernatural love that came from God to David which enabled David to love the Lord with a true love. Therefore, finding strength in the Lord in desperate times comes with Holy Spirit illumination about who God is and understanding His love. Christians can know this love just as the beloved John did who wrote, "We love because He first loved us." (1 John 4:19)
