"A Word for Desperate Times"
Grasping Revelation

The great prayer of the Apostle Paul that still has a truth for the true church today is a prayer for revelation. Ephesians 1:17-21 says, "I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know Him better. I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, and His incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is like the working of His mighty strength, which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come."

What the world needs to see is a Body of Christ which is able to get "revelation" from God in desperate times, Christians, who know Christ and unashamedly live by the Book, the Word of God.

The Greek word for "revelation" (apokalupsis) in Ephesians 1:17 means having, "a spirit which can fathom and unfold the deep things of God." The New International Dictionary of the Bibles tells us, "Revelation is the theme central to Christianity... The theological concept is the trustworthy account of God's self-revelation in word and deed contained in the Scriptures. To call the Bible the Word of God is to claim that it is the unique and faithful statement of God's self-revelation to mankind. To use the word inspiration [is to reveal the truth] that the Holy Spirit guided the hands of the writers of the Bible, to put down just what God wanted them to write. [It is] by illumination, the work of the Holy Spirit on the [spiritual] hearts and minds of readers and hearers of the contents [is man changed into the image of Christ]."

Let the Holy Spirit place this truth into your spiritual heart, when facing desperate times, Christians and mankind need a Word from God. The way of inquiring of God is prayerfully reading the Bible and inviting the Holy Spirit of Christ to do His faithful work within you. Jesus said, "It is written: 'Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" (Matthew 4:4)
Prayerfully Seek His Revelation!
