"Unfeigned Love"
Avoids a form of Godliness

True Christianity is an expression of life lived through the enabling of the Holy Spirit with Jesus being revealed in and through the Body of Christ. Christians who grasp this truth study the Word of God so they may know how to live a life pleasing to their Maker, so they can imitate Jesus Christ who sacrificially gave His life for them.

The first step to expressing true religion is to have a reverent fear of being seen as having only a form of Godliness. Jeremiah 10:21 says, "The shepherds are senseless and do not inquire of the Lord. The Apostle Paul warned Timothy that in the last days there would be those who have "...only a form of godliness..." (2 Timothy 3:5) Paul also wrote to Titus informing him of those who "...Claim to know God, but by their actions they deny Him. ...unfit to do any good." (Titus 1:16)

"Shepherds" (ra`ah) here refers to pastors of churches and civil rulers who are given the privilege and responsibility of governing a people. Failure to prayerfully seek the Lord through the counsel of His Word leaves the flock of God and the people of a nation to be governed by the human flesh, a world view and even the lies of the devil.

The second mark of the last days is a powerless religion that is not changing people into the image of Jesus Christ. Let the Holy Spirit place this truth within your heart, as we approach the return of Christ, there will be religion. There will be churches, temples and great worship centers which have glorious worship services with intriguing ceremonies full of singing, ear pleasing messages and a false fellowship that satisfies self. These worship centers will have attendees who have an outward profession, an appearance of godliness.

William Barclay in his exposition writes, "The final condemnation of these people is that they retain the outward form of religion, but they deny its power. That is to say, they recite the orthodox creeds, they go through the movements of a correct and dignified ritual and liturgy and worship; they maintain all the external forms of religion; but they know nothing of true [Christianity] as a dynamic power which changes the lives of men."

Genuine love begins with a reverent fear of being seen in God's eye as having only a form of godliness.
