Jan. 27 - I wish everyone could see the beautiful amaryllis blooming in my window now. It's the one I got in the red hat gift exchange at Christmastime.

Then in the store I saw another bulb looking like it was about to 'bust out' of its box, and couldn't stand seeing it thrown in the trash, so I'm watering it and it's growing fast.

Keith Anthony is to go to Kearney today and have surgery on Tuesday. We all wish him well and a quick recovery. His daughter, Sissy, will be with him.

Last week, Margaret "Toots"

Magers had some trouble with the dependability of her refrigerator, so on Monday, J.T. and Kendra Guy and Judy and Charlie Easton brought her another one.

It didn't seem there was much going on the the area last week. Do you suppose the foggy, drippy weather had anything to do with it?

A fourth grade teacher collected old, well-known proverbs. She gave each kid in her class the first half of the proverb, and had them finish. This is how they did.

1. As you shall make your bed - so shall you mess it up.

2. Better safe than - Punch a fifth grader.

3. Strike while the - bug is close.

4. Never underestimate the power of - termites.

5. It's always darkest before - daylight saving time.

6. You can lead a horse to water, but - how?

7. No news is - impossible.

8. Don't bite the hand that - looks dirty.

9. A miss is as good as - a mis-ter.

10. You can't teach an old dog new - math.

11. The pen is mightier than the - pigs.

12. An idle mind is - the best way to relax.

13. Where there's smoke, there's - pollution.

14. Happy the bride who - gets all the presents.

15. A penny saved is - not much.

16. Laugh and the world laughs with you, cry and - you have to blow your nose.

17. None are so blind - as Helen Keller.

18. If at first you don't succeed - get new batteries.

19. You get out of something what you - see pictured on the box.

20. When the blind lead the blind - get out of the way.

February 2 - Thank you and God bless to Anita Bolsky and Bee Nelson for stabilizing my hand-rail the dog had gotten her leash wound up in.

Margaret "Toots" Magers, Joyce Sumner, Eleanor Jensen, June Jolly and Kathy Van Meter quilted and sewed at Lyle on Tuesday for the first time since before Christmas.

Judy and Charlie Easton visited Toots on Sunday and finished bringing Christmas decorations in from her yard and the cemetry.

Earnest and Donna Huff are living in McCook now. They stayed at the farm Monday night, and went to the doctor at Hays on Tuesday. On Thursday, he saw a doctor in Norton. They both gave him good reports and okayed hip replacement if he wishes to do so.

Keith Anthony says he is doing all right and Gary and Cathy are coming home today from Lincoln, Neb.

June Jolly hit a deer by the Ron Temple place on her way to get her Prairie Land Food on Saturday. She went to a sale in McCook and came home loaded (just kidding, June) with sewing material of all kinds.

Congratulations to Cody and Brooke Briggs of Douglas, Wyo. for the birth of Kiyra Sage Briggs, granddaughter of Tracey Pershing. That's another name we will have to get used to. Ha! Pretty, though, That makes me her great, great, grandmother.

Veda Woods ate lunch with my aunt Alta May Van Gundy at the Andbe home on Sunday, Jan.

31, Alta's birthday. We visited, had a big piece of a scrumptious chocolate cake, and a lady from the Norton paper, LaVonne (sorry Veda the name is Harriett) Gill, interviewed her and took pictures. Then we went to their church service where there were more congratulations. I think she had a good day. Someone asked her how it felt to be 105 and she said, "Oh, it feels wonderful". I'll take her word for it, as I don't think I'll experience it. However, that would only be 19 years away and they go fast.
