Relay planning begins

Letters to businesses in Norton County, asking for corporate sponsorship for this year's Relay for Life, are being mailed by the American Cancer Society.

Businesses are being asked for cash or in-kind donations (where goods or services are offered). If they donate at the gold, silver or bronze level, their names/logos will be on the tee shirts worn by the participants in Relay.

There will also be some personal, follow-up visits made to some of the businesses.

Individuals may also donate to Relay. One can simply give a donation to Relay. Checks can be sent to Carol Otter, treasurer, 509 North 1st Street, Norton, Kan. Another way to donate is to purchase luminaria bags. These are $10 each and may be decorated to honor someone who is living or remember someone who lost their struggle with cancer. The bags may be decorated simply with the individual's name or can be decorated with all kinds of sayings, photos or memorabilia. At 10 p.m. the candles in the luminaria are lit and the names of all the people being remembered will be read. This is a touching ceremony, and the committee hopes many people will be present for this.

Norton County Relay for Life will be June 25-26 at the Court house Square. The planning committee is meeting regularly and plans are being made to have a great event this year. Residents of the county are invited to attend and participate in the many activities planned for this year's event. One very popular activity from last year's Relay will be on the agenda again in 2010, and that's the frozen tee shirt contest. Curious? Come to Relay 2010 and find out about it.
