"Unfeigned Loved"

Accountability Before God

Unfeigned love is expressed by your doing what God tells you to do because of the knowledge there will be a day of accountability. Acts 17:31 says, "For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the man He has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising Him from the dead." Romans 14:12 says, "So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God." Romans 2:16 says, "This will take place on the day when God will judge men's secrets through Jesus Christ, as my gospel declares." The New American Standard Bible says that God has "Fixed," (histēmi) meaning that the day of Judgement has been set, already determined. This is a righteous judgment dealing with how men lived and behaved. The Lord, Jesus will some day review and evaluate the ministry of His servants and not only Christians but all of mankind. (1 Corinthians 3:15; Isaiah 45:23; Romans 14:11) The whole of Scripture teaches us that Christians and non-Christians will give an accounting of their time, how they improved on their opportunities, what they did and how they lived their life on this earth. The Holy Spirit moved the Apostle Paul to proclaim a truth that should be grasped by Christians and non-Christians, "God will give to each person according to what he has done." (Romans 2:6)

Daniel Webster was asked, "What is the greatest thought that can occupy a man's mind," He said, "His accountability to God." History records an incident regarding Abraham Davenport which clearly reflects the heart of people who know that there will be a day of accountability. "Nearly two centuries ago, darkness came upon the midday hours in parts of New England. Cattle made their way to the barn and chickens went to roost. Many people fell on their knees, believing that it was the Day of Judgment. In Hartford, Connecticut, the State Council was in session. All were frightened, one member moved that they adjourn. Abraham Davenport objected to the motion, saying, 'If this be the Day of Judgment, I want to be found at my post on duty. I move that we bring in candles and proceed with the business at hand.' People who are convinced of the truth of accountability to God, trust not in the notions of mankind nor friends, they move in their hearts to seek the counsel of God's Word so they may be found at their post, serving the Lord.

Serve Knowing there will be Accountability!
