

NORCATUR NEWS

March 2

Do you still know the school song? It was written by Paul Walmer, possibly in the late 30's or early 40's. He attended high school, but is not listed as graduating at N.R.H.S.

"Fight for your school, boys, Norcat High; We'll raise the colors-Win if you try; Fight on for the old school's fame; fight on boys fight, you'll win this game; roll up the score, we'll take victory; true to Norcat you'll ever be; fight on boys just fight! Fight! Fight! For dear old Norcat High."

Club report: After a few postponements the Norcat Royal Neighbors gathered at the Norcat City Hall Feb. 10 for their belated Christmas Dinner. There were 20 people who enjoyed the meal prepared by Jerry and Bonnie Wescott. There were guests from Rexford, Wilsonville, McCook camps and friends from Norcat. The door prize of a stadium blanket was awarded to Joyce Price.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Norcat Citizens Alliance was held Feb. 18 at the Cardinal Bar and Grill. Board members present were: President Bob Strevey, Vice-President Rodney O'Hare, Secretary-Treasurer Denny Leichliter, Kristi Gallentine and Troy Wentz. The Treasurer reported that the Alliance distributed $3,092 in 2009, and has distributed over $103,000, since its inception. Thanks for using the Norcat Citizens Alliance.

We had a great AARP Defensive Driving class, March 12. Neither a single wreck nor a single ticket! Anise Gill, Norton, teaches the AARP Defensive Driving classes in this area and she makes it an interesting and fun time. We covered a lot in the eight hours and I think everyone learned at least one new thing. Thirteen attended the class including people from Norcat, Lyle, and Norton.

A Sunrise Service will be on the East Side of the Lyle Church at 7:15 a.m. April 4, Everybody is welcome. A breakfast will be at the Community Building following the service.

Reminder: During tornado season the tornado whistle will be tested every Monday between 10 and 10:30 a.m. Unless there is severe weather in the forecast. In case of a tornado, the whistle is short alternating blasts and a fire whistle is a long continuous blast.

JENNINGS NEWS

Last week, (March 13-14), Sarah McKenna, Topeka; Jacque McKenna, Iowa City, Iowa; and Marcus McKenna, Hays were home to visit their parents Pat and Shelley McKenna and Chris.

They all surprised Pat with a birthday party on Saturday. On Sunday they celebrated Max

Ward's 90th birthday and Max and Norma's anniversary with a dinner at their home in Clayton.

Others attending were Dave Ward, Clayton; Jake and Krisha Ward, Manhattan, Jodi Bina, Braxton and Audrey, Edwardsville, Julie and Ken Carter, Becky Carter and Stann Hartzog, Jennings; Jess and Megan Carter, Clayton and Anna, Oberlin; Ann Dubois, Abby and Madi, Norton; Lori, Terry and Kelly Wycoff, Scott City, and Bea Nelson, Norcat.

Following Ad Council meeting at the United Methodist Church Sunday night, Bible Study was held. Those attending Bible Study were: Rachel Carter, Ken and Julie Carter, Louise Cressler, Vi Krizek, Darlene LaRue, Marge Hartzog and Helen Rhodes with Rev. Barbara Patterson leading the study.

This is an interesting study.

JENNINGS NEWS

On March 23, Jennings Tuesday Study Club met at the United Methodist Church and traveled by caravan to Gove. The members ate at the Gove County Seat Cafe and then went to Gove City Yarn store. Mrs. McDonald, owner of the yarn store, provided a large table for the monthly meeting of the Tuesday Study Club. Roll call was answered by Rachel Carter, Patty Foster, Violet Foster, Pat

Foster, Pat Hall, Joanie Metz, Lila Jennings, Lynn Tacha, Joan McKenna, Carla Latimer and Wilma Mader. After the meeting everyone enjoyed looking and purchasing yarn and accessories. Mrs. McDonald also has antiques in the shop. She showed us a quilt that was 160 years old. She sells yarn by mail order also. They all had a great time.

Controlled burning of vegetation and small tree limbs within the city limits of Jennings will be permitted from April 1 through May 9. Adequate safety measures must be taken at all times. City-wide clean-up day is May 1.

Gwen and Jeff Anderson, Council Grove; Megan Faris, Jessica Lemmons and Gabe, Manhattan stayed overnight Sunday with Wayne and Louise Cressler. All attended the funeral of Nadine

Anderson, mother of Jeff Anderson, Monday morning at the Oberlin Covenant Church.

Community extends sympathy to Alice and Wilfred Wagoner and family and to Patricia Foster and family in the death of Wilfred and Patricia's brother on Thursday. Funeral Mass was March 29 at the St. Frances Cabrini Catholic Church, Hoxie.
