The Norton Community High School varsity golf team opened the 2010 season on Tuesday with a third place finish in the weather-shortened annual Redmen Invitational Golf Tournament in Smith Center.

The cool weather produced hail which shortened the tournament to nine holes.

Phillipsburg won the championship with a 164, followed by Trego Community, 177; Norton, 184; Smith Center, 189; Rock Hills, 202; Osborne, 203; Belleville, 239.

Norton senior J.D. Gall shot a 41 for the Blue Jays' lowest score and just missed No.1 medalist honors by two strokes. Senior Connor Pfannenstiel was No.9 medalist with a 44.

The rest of Norton's four-man team and their scores were: senior Marcus Herman, 44 and junior Cole Archer, 54.

Also competing for Norton and their scores were: sophomore Taylor Meder, 58 and freshman Eli Bozarth, 62.

Medalists were Kyle Hoover, Phillipsburg, 39; Brad Pfannenstiel, Trego, 40; J.D. Gall, 41; Brock Morgan, Phillipsburg, 41;

Matt Schneider, Phillipsburg, 42; Ryan Hoover, Phillipsburg, 42; Alex Hobelmann, Smith Center, 43; Cameron Staples, Trego, 43; Connor Pfannenstiel, 44; John Boyington, Phillipsburg, 44.

"We began the season with a solid start, finishing third in the team race to very good squads from Phillipsburg and Trego," said Norton head golf coach David Stover.

"I am very pleased with the start of seniors J.D. Gall, Connor Pfannenstiel and Marcus Herman, who all played solid rounds.

"After our seniors, we are a very inexperienced team and today's results illustrate that fact.

"We will continue to work on overall game improvement in all areas as we host the Norton Invitational on Friday."

The Norton Community High School junior varsity track team opened the 2010 season on Tuesday in the Junior Varsity Track Meet in Smith Center.

The boys finished fourth with 57 points and the girls placed fifth with 26 points.

"We are pleased with the effort and results that our 15 athletes gave," said Norton head track coach Jason Jones.

"This was their first track and field competition of the season and, for some of them, first of their high school careers. Our young people did an excellent job of handling themselves and competing very well.

"We established some impressive early marks with performances leading to two personal records, seven medals and team points in 16 events. Additionally, they brought home solid team finishes.

"We are excited about the future for these young people and the improvements that are sure to come for them as they continue to compete throughout the season."

ton girls were: sophomore Caren Thomson, fourth in the 100 meter hurdles in 19.40, fourth in the 300 meter hurdles in 1:02.90 and sixth in the 100 meter dash in 15.70 and freshman Maggie Henry, fourth in the 100 meter dash in 15.30 and fourth in the 400 meter dash in 1:16.40.

Henry also competed in the 200 meter dash and was timed in 32.00.

Next action

The young Norton track and field athletes will have a chance to compete in the Norton Invitational Meet held today at Travis Field, as well as in the Freshman/Sophomore Meet on Monday in Goodland, beginning at 4:45 p.m.
