"Abiding In Christ"

Defeats Temptation

It is a necessity that we understand what Jesus meant when He said, "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you..."

Suppose there is a Christian who is easily overcome by temptation. Suppose also that there is another Christian who sees this brother continually falling and intervenes by moving in with him. The stronger brother is always right there to make sure he does not fall into slumber, makes sure that he is eating the right foods, sleeping at the proper times and getting back and forth to work at the right time. Thus, the weaker Christian is unable to be overcome by his temptation, because the stronger Christian is always right there protecting and giving strength to the weaker brother. As long as the stronger Christian keeps that contact the weaker Christian lives victoriously. However, as soon as contact is broken in any way that temptation rears its head again and defeat is at hand.

Defeat is sure, because the fact is that Christians cannot defeat the flesh, and the world and discern the lies of the devil without the help of the eternal Friend, Jesus Christ, who sticks closer than a brother. Just as the weaker Christian needed the constant intervention of the stronger Christian, the child of God needs that same constant intervention of the Spirit of Christ in his life.

The fact is there are those people who just can't keep themselves out of the gutter. I know of a man named Jim Carr. He went into the streets of Kansas City, MO. and found a down and outer on the streets. He took him into his house, cleaned him up, fed him good food, and taught this homeless man all he knew about the business he was in. The man did well. He prospered, got his own home, and after a season of being away from the protecting hand of Jim Carr, fell right back into the gutter. He went back into the streets of Kansas City, MO. The fact is, unless Christians are abiding in Christ and abiding in His words, they will not have the spiritual strength to keep themselves out of the gutter of the flesh, the world, and lies of the devil. Jesus Christ is the only one who can bring deliverance and the Word of God is the only food that can make and keep them spiritually healthy. Make sure you abide in Christ!
