LYLE NEWS

One misty-moisty morning last week I went to McCook and the first people I saw as I walked into Wal-Mart were Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen.

They had gone to Rhode Island one weekend to attend a grandson's graduation from college in Keene, N.H.

The next weekend they went to Tucson, Ariz., for another grandson's graduation from the University.

This is the one who was on Wheel of Fortune, and who is now ready to take the trip he won on that game.

And the cat came back. She had a bad cold when she came; sore eyes, stopped-up nose, etc. June had been doctoring her, and I was trying to, but in spite of my efforts, she died.

Well, I thought she did, so I wrapped her up and put her in her bed, but when I got up this morning, there she was walking around!

Do you suppose she knows what cat heaven is like?

Earnest Huff is living in the Hillcrest Nursing Home for a while, but is hospitalized now in McCook for surgery. We're hoping he will be better real soon.

Gary Anthony has more good news. His dialysis time has been cut back another 15 minutes on a trial basis, to three and a half hours.

The weekend of May 15 and 16, Joyce Sumner went with her son

Ward's family to Olathe to the graduation of Melanie's husband, Stephen Massey.

He graduated with a Doctorate in Education. Congratulations to him and all the graduates.

Joyce says she always enjoys hitting the bookstores while there.
