"What is the Purpose"
For Your Prayers

What is our purpose in having God answer the prayers we pray? If we want to be connected to God in prayer, we must pray that God will make us a blessing to others. There is a fact of life, if Christians expect God to bless them, they must be willing to bless others with whatever God has given them. Jesus wants us to be like Him and His view of the church is found in James 1:27, "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows..." If Christians ignore those who have obvious needs, what right do they have to pray to God about their own needs?

Obedient Christians are God's channels in meeting the needs of the poor in a way that draws attention to Christ. The reason you should ask God to bless your business or bless you in the work place is so that you can not only provide for yourselves. It is also so you can bless Him and reach out to the needs of the needy.

I recently read a story about a man who was a multi-multi-multi-millionaire. Pastor Rick Warren had visited with this man who just a few years ago went bankrupt. After going through this severe trial the man received the Holy Spirit gift of giving. He allowed the Holy Spirit to give him the revelation of hilarious giving, which is New Testament teaching. This man now gives 97% of his income to the Lord's work, which includes meeting the needs of the poor. He lives on 3% of his income and still lives a higher standard of life than most of the people in this country.

He found the necessity of obedience to the tithe, then, he was illuminated to the truth that he could not out give God. He went from the joyful surrender of 10% to 20% to 30% and is now at 97% and he lives a very wealthy life style. This man had come to the realization that his purpose in this world was to be a blessing to the Lord and others.

Not everyone has the Holy Spirit gift to give like the man whom Pastor Rick Warren wrote about. However, all Christians are called to pray for blessings that will grow their relationship with Christ, provide for their families and meet the needs of others.
