

You Set A Great Example for Those Who Will Follow!

Norton senior Alyssa Thomson brought her high school career to a successful conclusion by competing in the high jump and placing 14th.

Logan sophomore Hannah Pinkerton competed in the pole vault and finished 11th in the state with two more years of competition ahead of her.

Lady Blue Jay senior Hannah Waggoner was slowed by injuries this season but still qualified for the state meet. She is shown here competing in the 200 meter dash where she placed eighth.

Logan junior Brady Tien's best event is the pole vault, where he placed third, but he also qualified for the state meet in the 100 meter dash and had the sixth best time in the preliminaries.

Logan senior Tyson Pabst competed in the javelin and had the 15th best throw. He is shown here throwing the spear in a photo taken by David Steinle.

Northern Valley senior Megan Cole competed in the high jump but did not make the finals. She will continue her track career in college. This photo was taken by Monica Cole.

Northern Valley senior Alison Cole cleared the final hurdle during the 100 meter hurdles where she placed seventh in her preliminary heat.

Logan sophomore Alethea Bennett received the baton from junior Caley Greving during the preliminaries of the 4 x 400 meter relay. The Lady Trojans had the ninth best clocking.

Northern Valley junior Matt Dole competed in the pole vault and tied for 13th place.
