"In My Name"

Jesus said, "I will do whatever you ask in My name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask Me for anything in My name, and I will do it." (John 14:13-14)

The power of the disciples originated in prayer, therefore, Jesus could not have made a more powerful declaration in saying, whatever they should ask in His name, He would do. The phrase "in My Name" is not to be used as a charm for the command of supernatural energy. He did not wish it to be used as a magical charm like a rabbit's foot hung around a neck. It is both a guarantee, like the endorsement on a check, and a limitation on the petition; for He would grant only that petition that is consistent with His character and purpose. In prayer we are to call on Him to carry out His purposes, not our purposes.

The key to connecting in prayer with God is to honestly ask, "Am I really offering this prayer in Jesus' name?" No one can ask for some unworthy thing or object that has no purpose of glorifying Christ in his life and in the lives of all he comes in contact with. The prayer that connects with God ends with "Thy will be done." When this last truth is fully placed within a man's heart and being lived out in his life, he may come before the "Throne of Grace" with boldness.

The point is that God's Son took upon himself the results of sin and after dying upon the Cross of Calvary, He rose on the third day and He is now at the right hand of God His Father. Jesus says when we come in prayer in His name and for His purposes we as Christians will be given entrance simply because of what Christ did for us and the price that has already been paid.

It is somewhat like the man who took his son and several of his son's friends to the county fair to celebrate his son's homecoming after being a long time away from home because of an illness. He bought lots of tickets and he stood in front of every ride and every game and passed tickets out to each child that was involved in the celebration. As he was passing out the tickets, he all of a sudden noticed that there was a child that he had never seen before, standing with a hand out. The man asked, "Are you involved in my son's celebration party?" "No," said the young child. "Then why should I give you a ticket?" The little boy pointed at the man's son and said, "Your son said you would give me one." So the man did.

Do You Truly Pray in Christ's Name!
