

50 year class reunion held

The Norton Community High School Class of 1960 held their 50 year celebration the last weekend in July.

Of the 65 class members who graduated from Norton Community High School in 1960, 41 attended the reunion.

Eleven class members are deceased.

A social was held Friday evening, July 30 at the Norton Eagles Club, to welcome back the class of "60" and their spouses.

Saturday afternoon a tour of the Norton County Museum was scheduled and well attended. The many class members that participated were complimentary of the displays and history provided by the museum.

Saturday evening a banquet was held at the Norton Eagles Club. Bill Nelson gave a welcome to the class. A tasty prime rib meal with trimmings was provided by Dan Pfannenstiel.

The evening program was emceed by Mike Peterson. The invocation and a tribute to deceased class members was given by Dennis Gilhousen.

Three cheerleaders, Sandra Hays VanHoose, Lucia Schafer-Lindh and Carolyn Tillotson Smith, entertained the group with several cheers and led the group in singing the Alma Mater.

The climax of the evening banquet was entertaining, humorous and emotional talks by Jake Durham and Phil Finley, greatly respected teachers of the 1960 class.

Sunday morning, many class members participated in a farewell breakfast buffet at the Town and Country Kitchen.
