Drunk driving campaign begins

“Drunk Driving, Over the Limit, Under Arrest” campaign will bring more troopers to the road in Kansas.

The Kansas Highway Patrol and many other law enforcement agencies began participation in the Kansas Department of Transportation’s Special Traffic Enforcement Program, which runs from August 19 through Labor Day, September 6. Troopers will be enforcing Kansas’ impaired driving, occupant protection, and other laws.

“The Patrol is committed to keeping the roads safe for travelers in our state, and a large part of accomplishing that goal is getting impaired drivers off the roads,” Patrol Superintendent, Colonel

Terry Maple said. “Impaired drivers are dangerous to themselves and all other motorists. We will have additional troopers on duty, focused on impaired driver detection and enforcement of the state’s occupant protection laws.”

The Kansas Highway Patrol is among more than 100 law enforcement agencies across the state who will participate in the Drunk Driving, Over the Limit, Under Arrest, Special Traffic Enforcement Program campaign. In an effort to drastically reduce the number of preventable deaths and injuries that occur when alcohol is mixed with driving a vehicle or riding a motorcycle, troopers across the state will be participating in saturation patrols and check lanes. The Patrol’s Breath Alcohol Unit will be assisting road troopers and other law enforcement agencies with the check lanes to remove impaired drivers from Kansas roads.

It is illegal in Kansas to drive or attempt to operate a motor vehicle with a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .08 or higher. Penalties for impaired driving include loss of driving privileges, fines, court costs, and possible jail time. The more severe consequences of drinking and driving include injuring or killing yourself, an occupant of your vehicle, or the occupants of another vehicle.

The Patrol suggests taking the following precautions:

- If you plan to drive, do not drink.
- If you plan to drink, designate a non-drinking driver and give that person your keys.
- Never ride with a driver who has been drinking.
- Take a list of phone numbers with you for cabs or friends to call for a sober ride home.
- If possible, plan to spend the night at the event.
- If you are throwing a party, provide non-alcoholic alternatives, and never let guests drive drunk.
- Report impaired drivers to your local law enforcement agency.
- Always buckle up and properly secure children in their safety seats.
