It's all in the family for drama club

The Norton Community High School Drama Club is putting the finishing touches on the fall play, "They Run In Our Family."

They run in the Pennywinner family and how! They run, jog, do push ups, and they all do their part to make the Pennywinner residence a veritable gym.

All, that is, except Mom and Peggy who insist that life not revolve around athletics just because Dad coaches the Central High Frogs football, basketball, track and baseball.

Then, "we start the vicious circle all over again," Mom laments.

Dad "Coach Sam" lives and breathes sports 24 hours a day; daughter Pat wants to be a wrestling champ; son Buzz, is about to start in his first football game for the Frogs; and son Alvin, lives to wear a Frog jersey.

Dad's football teams have lost 25 games in a row and play arch-rival Northview Friday night. As the big game approaches, pressure and pandemonium mount.

"It Runs In Our Family" will be performed twice. The first performance is Saturday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. The second is a matinee Sunday, Nov. 14 at 2:30 p.m.

Admission prices are $5 for adults and $4 for students.

Cast members include: seniors: Bekah Streck, Zach Porter, Andrew Otter, Tanner Morel, Epiphany Grubs, Matt Carlton, Kelsie Morel, Maia Carlson, Diedre Kramer, Melinda Becker and David Mizell; juniors: Rhees Carlson and Mariah Farber. sophomores: John Renner, Cassius Dole, Ruth Kendell and Kelsey Mordecai. freshmen: Cole Renner.

"They Run In Our Family" is directed by Joan Hale, assisted by Marilyn Donahey.

The Norton Community High School Drama Club will present the Fall play "They Run In Our Family" on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the East Campus Auditorium. Rebekah Streck "Peggy" goes over her character's lines at a rehearsal of the play.

Mayor Corns presented a plaque the city received from the Kansas Municipal Energy Agency commemorating 100 years of Municipal Electric Service to honor the community visionaries who founded the city's electric utility in 1910.

A request for support of a research project for undergraduate capstone project was presented by Amber Nuttycomb.

ect for undergraduate capstone project was presented by Amber Nuttycomb.

"I am asking for support from the council on the questionnaire to do the research for the possibility of building a dog park in Norton," said Nuttycomb. "I have held a dog class in Tweed Park twice a year for 2 to 3 years and thought this would be a good project for my class."

Nuttycomb said she would return to a future council meeting and present a 20 minute powerpoint presentation regard

Almena woman wins Pick-Em on tiebreaker

By DICK BOYD
nortontelegram@nwkansas.com

Shirley Stutterheim, Almena, was one of only three football fans missing as few as two games in the tough tenth week of the Pigskin Pick-Em Contest and was the only one choosing the right winner of the tiebreaker game so will receive the $15 scrip first prize!

Shirley missed the North Carolina win over Florida State and the Oklahoma State victory over Baylor. In the tiebreaker game, TCU beat Utah 47-7 and Shirley chose TCU.

Aden Schillig, Norton, and Lexie McDowell, Hill City, were the other two fans to miss just two contests. Aden miscued on the Kansas State win over Texas and North Carolina win. Lexie was wrong on the North Carolina victory and LSU win over Alabama.

Both favored Utah to win the tiebreaker. Judges went to the actual scores of each team to decide who was closest to the aggregate scores. Both were a long ways off but Aden, who was 46 total points off, will receive the $10 scrip money second prize.

Lexie was a total of 50 points off and will receive the $5 scrip money third prize.

Correct on all but three games were:

Dalton Miller, Dawn Johnson, Melanie Romey, Scott Ellis, Gloria DeWitt, Wilma Wiseman, all of Norton.

Missing four contests were: Sandi Winchell, Ja'Nee Moore, Brenda Husted, Bob Covington, all of Almena; Barbara Brooks, Clayton; Barbara Springer, Long Island; Tiffney Yeager, McDonough, Ga.; Terry Lipp, Edwardsville; Chelle Millan, Baylee Miller, Regina Beikman, Amanda Ray, Andrew Ellis, Cassidy Palmer, Ken Gregoire, Rick Green, Jacob Green, Trish Brooks, all of Norton.

Incorrect on six contests were: Alberta Geil, Almena; Samantha Turner, Edwardsville; Jared Foley, Wichita; Chris Foley, Fairfield, Calif.; Hank Kaiser, Long Island; Chase Rice, Patrick
