

OBITUARIES

Geneva Berry

October 13, 1930 - December 27, 2010

Geneva Berry, daughter of Carl and Francis (Dieterich) Beckman, was born Oct. 13, 1930, on the family farm southeast of Lenora and died at the Norton County Hospital in Norton, on Dec. 27, at the age of 80.

Geneva grew up in the North Star neighborhood and attended the North Star rural grade school. She graduated from the Lenora High School and attended secretarial school in Kansas City for one year. On Sept. 17, 1950, Geneva and J.C. "Joe" Berry were united in marriage at the Christian Church in Norton. They made their home in Norton before moving to Lenora where they custom harvested and farmed for many years. In addition, Geneva enjoyed working for Rural Telephone and serving as Lenora City Clerk. Following their retirement, they returned to Norton.

Geneva was a member of the United Parish Church in Lenora, had served on the Chancel and Memorial committees, and helped design the banner at the church. She was a member of the Eastern Star and had held offices at the local and state levels. She was a member of the Lenora High School Alumni, the Republican County Committee, and had served as a precinct committee-woman. She was a member of the FCE and had served on the Library Board and as a Girl Scout Leader.

Survivors include: her husband, Joe Berry, of their home in Norton; one son and his wife, Steve and Joni Berry, Lenora; one daughter and her husband, Janet and David Oswalt, Lenora; six grandchildren, Amanda (Berry) and Robert Gray, Kayla Berry and friend, Terry Mathis, Anna and James Berry, Nathan and Renee Oswalt; one great-grandson, Chase Gray; one brother and his wife, Calvin and Iva Beckman, Lenora; other relatives and many friends.

Geneva was preceded in death by her parents, one son, Tim Joe Berry, and one brother, Alvin Beckman.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the United Parish Church in Lenora. Burial will be in Lenora South Cemetery. A memorial has been established to Lenora United Parish Church and/or the American Heart Association. Arrangements are by Enfield Funeral Home of Norton.

Dona M. Roberts

October 17, 1927 - December 26, 2010

Dona Maxine (Wiltfong) Roberts was born October 17, 1927, at her parent's home south of Dellvale. She was the daughter of Leslie and Effie (Higgins) Wiltfong. Dona died at the Lawrence Memorial Hospital on December 26, at the age of 83.

Dona grew up on the family farm in the Dellvale and Edmond area. She attended rural grade schools District 95 and District 98, in Norton County. She attended two years at Lenora High School and the last two years at Norton Community High School. Upon graduation, she attended summer school at Ft. Hays University and received her teaching certificate. She taught one year in Norton County at the Dallas school district. The following summer she began working for Horney's Appliance. Later she took a job at the First Security Bank in Norton, where she worked for 33 years until her retirement in 1992.

Dona married Lolan Roberts on December 6, 1946, in Norton. They made their home in Norton and were married for 43 years before his death December 4, 1989.

Dona was a member of the United Methodist Church and the Norton American Legion Auxiliary. She was an avid KU fan and watched most of their games on TV.

Dona is survived by two children: one son, Gary, and his wife, Melva Roberts, Lawrence; one daughter, Connie, and her husband, Jim Green, Norton; four grandsons, Brett and Chris Roberts, Lawrence; Nicholas Green, Hays; Jason Green, Houston, Texas; four brothers, Eugene, and wife, Maxine Wiltfong, Glen and wife, Elinor Wiltfong, all of Norton; Gerald and wife, Donna Wiltfong, Phillipsburg; Max Wiltfong, Tempe, Ariz.; two sisters-in-law, Betty Wiltfong and Charlotte Roberts, both of Norton; many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Dona was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Lolan, her granddaughter, Cathy Roberts, and her brother, Harold Wiltfong.

Funeral services were held Thursday at Enfield Funeral Home. Burial was in Norton Cemetery. A memorial has been established to Bieber Cottages of Norton.

Arrangements were by Enfield Funeral Home of Norton.

Jennings plans honor blood drive

The American Red Cross will be conducting an Honor Blood Drive at the Jennings United Methodist Church on Tuesday, Jan. 18.

The blood drive is in honor of Lawrence Jennings who is suffering with Acute Leukemia. Lawrence requires frequent transfusions to enable his blood to transport oxygen from his lungs to the rest of his body.

Donors do not need to be the same blood type as Lawrence. All donations are appreciated. Watch for further announcements.

Contact person for this event is Marjorie Hartzog. She may be reached at 678-2664 (home phone) or 678-3010 (cell) for more information.

The event is sponsored by the Jennings United Methodist Church.
