Annual wrestling tournament this Saturday here in Norton

By DICK BOYD

nortontelegram@nwkansas.com
The 46th annual J.R. Durham Invitational Wrestling Tournament will be held Saturday in the NCHS Stull Gymnasium in Norton.

Teams from Atwood, Beloit, Cozad, Thomas More Prep of Hays, Hoxie, Leoti, McCook, Mill Valley, Oakley, Scott City and Smith Center will compete along with the Norton varsity and junior varsity teams.

The first session will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the second session will begin around 5 p.m.

Honored prior to the second session will be Norton state tournament wrestling medal winners from 1941, 1951, 1961, 1971, 1981, 1991 and 2001.

Each will be introduced to the crowd and each will receive a certificate of wrestling excellence from J.R. "Jake" Durham in honor of the anniversary of their state medal.

The longtime Norton tournament was renamed 13 years ago in honor of J.R. "Jake" Durham of Norton, the former longtime wrestling coach for the Blue Jays.

Jake's many honors include membership in the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and Kansas High School Wrestling Hall of Fame. Jake and his wife, Ruth, still reside in Norton.

This tournament is traditionally a very tough, competitive event with many state ranked wrestlers competing.

Plaques will be awarded to the top three teams and medals to the top four wrestlers in each weight class. There will be no public recognition for fifth and sixth place finishers but they will receive points.

An "Outstanding Wrestler" will be chosen by vote of the coaches.

A more complete story on the Durham Invitational with the names of the wrestlers to be honored, Norton's tentative wrestling lineup, etc. will be in Friday's Norton Telegram.

No dual with Mill Valley

A dual between Norton and Mill Valley was originally scheduled for this evening but has been canceled.

Husky boys win against Rock Hills

The Northern Valley boys basketball team downed the Rock Hills boys 45-36 on Dec. 17 in their last game before the Christmas break.

The win puts the Huskies up to 4-1 this season.

"We played a very solid game," Coach Chuck Fesenden said. "We did a nice job of defending the Ost boy. He is a very good player. Our offense was kind of sluggish in the first half, but we started moving better in the second."

"It is great to be 4-1 going into Christmas break."

The boys from Rock Hills started out ahead 7-6 in the first quarter but the Huskies caught up, outscoring them 13-10 in the second quarter to lead 19-17 at the half.

In the third quarter the Huskies, again, edged Rock Hills. This time it was 10-9 for a narrow 29-26 lead.

In the last quarter, Northern Valley took a firm lead outscoring the visitors 16-10 for a 45-36 victory.

Scoring for Northern Valley were Austin Herman 13 including two three-point shots, Colton Lowry 8 including two three pointers, Bryant Tharman 4, and Tyler Montgomery 2.

Leading rebounders were Tharman, six, and Herman and Dusty Eagleburger, five each.

The junior varsity Huskies fell 50-46 to Rock Hills.

Leading scorer was Jordan Baird, 20, and leading rebounders were Hunter Chandler and Daniel Field, five each.
