"Psalm Sunday"

Message Available on "Truths in the Triumphal Entry"

There are many truths worth grasping as we take time to make a Biblical examination of the "Triumphal Entry" into Jerusalem and the day just preceding Palm Sunday. Those sad days brought sorrow upon Mary and those who loved the Lord Jesus Christ. We see Lazarus enjoying fellowship with the risen Christ. We see Mary sitting at Jesus' feet, growing in grace and knowledge of the Son of God as well as Martha serving, exercising her gift of hospitality. The Biblical account of "the Triumphal Entry" gives essentials for the Body of Christ. They are walking in victory over sin and death, worshiping and giving adoration to the Lord, and service to the King of kings.

When Christians grasp the truth of Jesus Christ as King as well as Savior they want to live a life that says, "I care about Jesus' Kingship in my life." The Holy Spirit wants you to understand that Jesus holds many places of authority such as Savior, Teacher, Great Shepherd, and Healer, however, our kingless culture and democratic process downplay the very important matter of Jesus as "Messiah," "The Christ," being "God's Anointed" the King. Jesus Christ is the King to whom everyone will someday bow their knee and confess as Lord. To help you understand the steps to proclaiming this good news, Pastor Laughlin has spent nearly 100 hours preparing this message:

Personally Anointing Christ King

Presenting these truths:

Biblical Examination of the "Triumphal Entry"

Know Jesus as God's Messiah

Shout "Hosanna!"

Acts of Obedience
