"Grasping What Christ has Accomplished"

In the years of working with Arabian Horses, my parents and I attended a special coronation celebration for a beautiful Arabian Stallion. We sat in a large indoor arena, excitingly watching this beautiful horse receive the very high honor, "The Legion of Merit." The lights were turned off and a large spotlight appeared at the entrance gate. Music was playing and our hearts beat with anticipation. Then suddenly a beautiful bay stallion with long black flowing mane and tail entered at a gallop. The spot light followed him as he loped through the arena while the announcer told of all the animal's achievements. When the announcer was finished, the horse trainer entered and called the horse to come to him. With lights upon them, a coronation of roses was fastened around his neck and laid across his chest. This beautiful Arabian Stallion was led from the arena as the crowd gave a standing ovation.

In contrast was the atonement day of Christ—the day the perfect man received for a coronation a crown of thorns. He went about accomplishing the complete will of God, healing the sick, feeding the multitudes and raising the dead. If anyone was worthy of honor it was Him. Yet, He was not greeted with lights and music, but with darkness that came over the land. (Luke 23:44) He did not receive a coronation of roses, a public announcement of achievements and a standing ovation. Rather, He was given a crown of thorns and afflictions from men.

To help you grasp what Jesus Christ accomplished on the Cross, Pastor Laughlin has spent nearly 200 hours preparing two messages:
