

LYLE NEWS

On Tuesday I begged off helping at the paper so I could help clean at the Lyle Community Building for the Easter Service. Joyce Sumner, Eleanor Jensen and I started and soon saw that the roads were muddier than we had realized, so Joyce managed to turn around and go back.

It seemed to be a busy week. Between rainy periods I went to Oberlin for groceries, a doctor visit, pills and driver's license, helped clean the Community Building, helped fix food for Sunday morning, and then, woe is me I slept through the Sunday Service. That was embarrassing! Carol and John noticed I wasn't there and came after me, so we were in time for breakfast. It was a very good breakfast and we were thankful that so many people came. We didn't see the sun, but I know it was there.

Kathy Van Meter was taking some good-natured kidding about a fall which had scratched her face. Hope it heals fast, Kathy.

Toots' grandson, J.T. Guy, and his family from Abilene were her guests over the weekend and, were lots of help with food, etc. Jane, Mike and Pam Engelhardt and Judy and Charlie Easton came in the afternoon as Judy was playing bells with her group in the morning.

Forty members of the Jolly/Carter family had their Easter dinner at the American Legion building in Lebanon, Neb.

Linda and Dennis McFarland, Dean and Rhonda Jolly, Darren Jolly, Jennifer, Mike and Jack, Carroll and Kathy Jolly attended the funeral in Council Bluffs, Iowa, for the son-in-law of Ron Weish, the friend of Carroll Jolly who has visited June's family several times. The young man lost his life in Afghanistan. Of course, the nuts (excuse me) the demonstrators were there, but were not very effective as there were supporters lined along the route for five miles. God bless America!

My sister, Dixie Wood, called to say that Elvin had fallen and has been bedfast for the past week. They have not had any severe weather, only lots of rain.

Merlin Wood sent a picture of their son, Micael, who is an Afghanistan returnee and is still in training; he could not be home, but was sharing Easter with some cousins.

"Biblical Principles to Capturing the Spiritual Hearts of Children"

"I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also." (2 Timothy 1:5)

Charles Swindoll had a friend whose Christian mother knew the value of a godly upbringing. When he was still just a young baby she would sing him to sleep at night, not singing little ditties and lullabies, but singing hymns and songs that speak of the Christian faith. From the crib until he left home, she made sure he knew the truths of God's Word, which are so powerfully proclaimed in hymns such as "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Many Christian mothers have been chosen by the Lord to plant spiritual seeds that the Holy Spirit uses to bring many to Christ.

To help you grasp the blessings of being a Christian mother, Pastor Laughlin has spent nearly 100 hours preparing this message:

Influential Mothers

Presenting these Truths:

Ask Themselves the Important Question

Are Supportive

Are Sympathetic

Are Straightforward

Are Spontaneous
