HANSEN MUSEUM

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum presents two exhibits simultaneously: "The State of Kansas Historical Mural" by Dennis Schiel and "Maxwell Berry's Wildflower Photography." These exhibits will open on March 16 and run through April 15.
"The State of Kansas Historical Mural," by Dennis Schiel will consist of 10 3x-4foot panels. Each panel will contain historical subjects that pertain to the panel's coverage area. This mural will have over 300 historical subjects covering the people, animals, landscape, trails, railroads, and historical sites from the state of Kansas. The state's history will be painted over a background map of Kansas.

Dennis Schiel's ultimate goal was to have painted a state mural with historical content second to none. "If one picture says a thousand words, I can't imagine the number of words created with this mural."
Dr. Maxwell Berry's Wildflower Photography, which he donated in the mid-seventies, consists of over 100 framed photographs. This collection has shown periodically in the past and the museum will once again share this exhibit with the public.
