

Talent among us

The MCEL Music Festival was held last Wednesday at the Norton Junior High School. Norton hosted schools from around the region for vocal and instrumental music competitions, including ensembles, solos and group performances. Students were rated based on their performances at the festival. Pictured, Peyton Renner, daughter of Craig and Cheri Renner, performed a solo rendition of "How Can I Keep From Singing" at the festival, earning a top rating for her performance. She was accompanied by Sara Brehmer while Kirstin Georgeson helped turn piano music pages.

Scholarships now available

The Dane G. Hansen Foundation announces that health career scholarships will again be made available in 2012. Any application for a health-related career that will enhance the delivery of health care in the Phillipsburg/Norton area will be considered.

To be eligible for this scholarship the applicant must have completed the pre-requisite classes and been accepted into their chosen medical field.

Each scholarship carries a $3,000 annual grant. The awards are renewable, year by year, if satisfactory progress is made toward completion of professional training.

Recipients of the scholarships must agree to return to the Phillips County Hospital to serve in their professional capacities for at least one year for each year the scholarship is awarded. If there are no openings in the Phillips County Hospital, recipients shall offer their services to the Norton County Hospital. In the case that neither should have an opening the applicant must find work in their chosen field in the state of Kansas.

The scholarships are administered by the Board of Trustees of the Phillips County Hospital, which is managed by Great Plains Health Alliance. After receiving the applications, an interview will be set up with the Hospital Board of Trustees.

Applicants should write for information to:

Health Scholarships
Attn: Human Resources
Phillips County Hospital
P.O. Box 607
Phillipsburg, KS 67661
Deadline for applications is March 23.

Poster contest open for youth

The Kansas Department of Transportation is sponsoring its sixth-annual arts contest that encourages Kansas youth to resist pressure and abstain from drinking alcohol until reaching the legal age limit of 21.

The contest allows Kansas youth to express themselves creatively through music, art or writing in hopes of winning as much as $4,000 in scholarships. Kansas residents, ages 14 through 20, are encouraged to enter the competition by logging onto www.sobrietyrocksk.net. Entries are due April 13. Four separate $1,000 scholarships will be awarded in June for best music, best art, best writing and best commercial. It is possible for one contestant to win in more than one category.

Potential topics could include peer pressure to drink alcohol, finding more to life than drinking, problems that are created or made worse by alcohol and why waiting until age 21 to drink is smart.

The newly updated home page at www.sobrietyrocksk.net features past winners to inspire students thinking of entering this year.

Entries will be judged by instructors and professionals in the four categories, department representatives and youth advocates from across the state. Judging will be based on creativity, originality, craftsmanship, clear anti-underage drinking message and passion.

Log onto www.sobrietyrocksk.net for additional contest information, a complete set of rules or for inspiration on the 2012 Sobriety Rocks Scholarship Contest.

HANSEN MUSEUM

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum presents the "35th Annual High School Art Show." This exhibit opened Feb. 10 and will run through March 11 and consists of a variety of art forms. Displayed by category, they are painting acrylics/oils, watercolor and tempera, pencil and drawing, ink and scratch board, printmaking, colored pencil, 3-dimensional and sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, graphic design, pastel/crayon, charcoal and mixed media. The participating schools are Osborne, Phillipsburg, Norton, Ellis, Plainville, Smith Center, Hill City and Logan.

The February 2012 Joy of Painting Class was held this last weekend, Feb. 18 and 19, in the Hansen Community Room. We had a total of 39 students in attendance and each student took home a completed painting for each day of the class. Certified instructors T.R. Mathews and Sandy Seamone, Arriba, Colo., revealed how easy and fun it is to paint the Bob Ross way.

Don't forget the "Ventriloquist" from the Bureau of Lectures Program. This program is sponsored by the Dane G. Hansen Museum, and the performance will be on Tuesday, March 6 at 9:30 a.m. The program will be held in the Logan Grade School Auditorium and is open to the public.

Our February Artist of the Month is Gordon Mai from Wilson. Gordon has graphite, pastel and photography on display.
