WEDDING

Breann Joy Janzing and McKinley Wayne Harshbarger were united in marriage on Jan. 28 at the Faith Community Church in O'Neill, Neb. Pastor Steve Randolph performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of John and Teresa Janzing of Atkinson, Neb. The groom is the son of David and Shelley Harshbarger of Norton, and Brett and Dani Hinson of Bertrand, Neb.

Clayton and Lura Goeke of Atkinson, Neb. are the bride's grandparents.

Roy Harshbarger of Norton and Bob and Ada Hinson of Bertrand, Neb. are the groom's grandparents. Unable to attend but celebrating in spirit were Jerome Rudolph of Almena, grandfather of the groom and Don and Vera Saddler, the groom's great-grandparents.

The bride's sisters served as her bridesmaids. Her twin sister, Abby Janzing, was the maid of honor and Laurel Wettlaufer was her matron of honor.

The groom's cousin, Rex Harshbarger, was best man and the groom's brother, Kyle Harshbarger, was his groomsman.

Candle-lighters were the groom's sister, Brianna Hinson, and his cousin Haley Graham.

The flower girls were the groom's sister, Gracey Hinson, and the bride's niece, Kimberly Wettlaufer.

The ring-bearers were the groom's brother, Brodey Hinson, and the bride's nephew, Hunter Wettlaufer.

Serving as ushers were Jamie Harshbarger, the groom's brother, Kevin Harshbarger, the groom's uncle and Nathaniel Graham, the groom's cousin. Laurel Wettlaufer played "Be Thou My Vision" on violin during the unity candle.

Scott Moore provided the sound for the ceremony.

A reception and short dance were held at the Atkinson Community Center.

Following a short honeymoon trip the couple is residing in St. Paul, Neb.
