

Cutting Cancer

Raising more than $700 in the process, several local salons participated in the Norton County Relay For Life's "Cuts for a Cure" fund-raiser last Friday to raise money for the American Cancer Society. Some businesses offered $10 haircuts with proceeds going to Relay for Life and some offered matching donations. Pictured, Kelsi Burns of Bella Sole provides a haircut to Renee Griffith of Norton during the Cuts for a Cause fund-raiser.

STUDENT NEWS

The Ladies Auxiliary of Harmonson-Redd Post 63, the American Legion in Norton announces Erin Terrell as the recipient of their 2012-2013 scholarship. Erin will enroll this fall at Cloud County Community College and will major in Dietetics. Her parents are Mike Terrell and Jennifer and Toby Boller.

ATTENTION:

Please keep in mind that if your vehicle registrations run out at the end of April, you need to get into the office and register before 4:30 p.m. on the 30th as the State of Kansas will be converting all motor vehicle records May 1 through May 7 and will not be able to transact any vehicle or driver license business at this time.

The Treasurer's Office will be open to collect the 2nd half of Real Estate, Personal Property, Intangible Tax, 16/20 M Truck and Oil/Gas Taxes. The deadline for 2nd half taxes to be paid without a penalty is May 10, 2012.

Family of missionaries to talk at Norton church

Tom and Deb Morse of North Burma Christian Mission will tell of their work on Sunday, April 29 at Norton Christian Church. Services are at 8 a.m. and 10:40 a.m., with a pot luck lunch at noon. Everyone is invited for this celebration of God's victories through this faithful family.

 J. Russell and Gertrude Morse, Tom's grandparents, went to the field from Tulsa, Okla., in 1921 when Tom's father was a baby.

In the years since, the family has done effective mission work, becoming a legend for many who have followed them in Southeast Asia missions.
