

Rockin' nursery rhymes

The Eisenhower Elementary kindergarten vocal music classes held a concert Tuesday afternoon at the school. "Gettin' Down with Mama Goose" featured a selection of nine songs adapted from Mother Goose nursery rhymes and performed in different musical styles. The concert was performed under the direction of Joyce Morel and accompanied on the piano by Belinda Thalheim.

College graduations approach

With graduation numbers continuing to rise, Fort Hays State University will continue to recognize graduate and undergraduate students in separate ceremonies this spring.

Students who are receiving advanced degrees will participate in Commencement at 7 p.m. Friday, May 11 in Gross Memorial Coliseum, which is immediately adjacent to the U.S. 183 Bypass on the south side of the campus. Students who are receiving associate and bachelor's degrees will participate in Commencement at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 12, also in Gross Memorial Coliseum.

In addition, members of the second graduating class of the Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science, which is hosted at the university, will have their own Commencement a week earlier at 3 p.m. Saturday, May 5 in the Memorial Union Ballroom.

The university has more than doubled its enrollment over the past decade, climbing above 13,000 at the end of the fall 2011 semester, and there has been a corresponding explosion in the number of graduates. Although the numbers may change slightly when the degree-checking process concludes, the Registrar's Office projects there will be 3,151 graduates this year, which includes associate, bachelor and graduate-level degrees. That is an all-time record and the first time the number of graduates has exceeded 3,000. The degrees will go to students who completed graduation requirements in summer 2011, fall 2011 and spring 2012. This year's total of 3,151 compares to 2,661 last year. As recently as 2005, the university had only 1,374 graduates.

By holding a separate Commencement for graduate students on Friday night, which includes the traditional hooding ceremony, overcrowding can be avoided at the traditional Saturday morning Commencement. It also ensures the larger Saturday morning ceremony can be comfortably completed in less than two hours.

Doors will open at the coliseum for graduate students and their guests at 6 p.m. Friday, May 11. A reception will follow the graduate Commencement in the Victor E. Lounge.

Doors will open at the coliseum for undergraduates and their guests at 8 a.m. Saturday, May 12. Everyone is encouraged to arrive early.

More than 2,225 students are eligible to participate in the 114th spring commencement ceremonies Friday and Saturday, May 11-12, at Wichita State University. Ceremonies will be held in the Charles Koch Arena.

Undergraduate and graduate degrees will be conferred in individual college ceremonies.
