Barn tour set for Sunday

Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission has re-scheduled the area barn tour for Sunday. The tour group will leave The Gateway at 2 p.m.

Tour members are encouraged to car pool. Refreshments will be served during the tour at the farm of Steve and Arian Arnold. Other barns on the tour will include those of Mick Barth, Richard Anderson, Millard Kyte (the Mines barn), Martin May, Art May and the Helmkamp barn.

This is an Arts and Humanities season ticket event or $12 for adults, $7 for students grades 1-12, or a special family price of $25.

For information, call Ella Betts (785) 475-3557 or Mary Henzel (785) 470-0218.

Lenora Jubilee is June 15-16

The Lenora Jubilee Association announced this week that multi-platinum recording artist Tracy Lawrence will be the featured performer on Friday, June 15 at the 2012 Lenora Jubilee. Lawrence's latest album, The Singer, includes new versions of two of his major hits, "Paint Me a Birmingham" and "Find Out Who Your Friends Are."

Opening for Lawrence will be Warner Bros. Records guitar slinger Frankie Ballard. He brings a bluesy, rocking edge to the country scene. His first single, "Tell Me You Get Lonely," became a top-five video chart success, and "A Buncha Girls" was released as a radio single in 2011.

Saturday night's concert will kick off with Scandia native Jared "Pete" Giles and will feature the Jared Daniels Band, current Nashville Recording Artists hailing originally from Manhattan.

"Our lineup of artists for 2012 is probably one of our most exciting," said Scott Sproul, Lenora Jubilee Association president. "We are so lucky to have an artist like Tracy Lawrence."

Saturday is packed with fun events for the entire family. From yard sales to bingo to races for people and for critters, there is something for everyone. Y102 will lead a sanctioned pedal tractor pull. The theme for 2012 is "Find Out Where the Fun Is."
