

Your Hard Work and Sportsmanship were Exceptional!

Norton sophomore Austin Hager cleared 13' in the Class 3A pole vault but it wasn't quite good enough to medal.

Lady Jay junior Alec Melvin heaves the shot during Class 3A competition. She recorded a distance of 35'7" to place fifth.

Logan senior Hannah Pinkerton sails over the bar in the Class 1A pole vault. She cleared 8'6" to tie for third in the state

Norton junior Jacob Brooks just missed points in the high jump with a 6' clearance, which was eighth best.

Lady Blue Jay Sierra Griffith completed her freshman track season by competing in the 3200 meter run. She was timed in 14:34.34 for 14th best and gained valuable experience for coming years.

Northern Valley freshman Kortney Cunningham clears the high jump bar in Class 1A. She had a height of 4'8" which placed her 15th.

Norton sophomore Katelyn Engelbert begins her leg of the 4 x 800 meter relay in Class 3A after receiving the baton from junior Tawni Griffey. The foursome of Engelbert, Griffey, sophomore Bailey Ambrosier and freshman Sierra Griffith placed fourth in 10:20.90.

Members of Norton's 4 x 800 meter relay team were all smiles after placing fourth. They are, from left, Sierra Griffith, Tawni Griffey, Bailey Ambrosier and Katelyn Engelbert.

Lady Jay Katelyn Engelbert gave a little extra to edge a competitor at the finish line in the Class 3A 4 x 800 meter relay to finish in fourth place.
