During the Awards Ceremony, James Berry received two medals. He won the silver for second in the standing position with a 97 x 100 and a bronze medal for third high aggregate from all four positions with a 388.

Norton head coach Cameron Archer checks James Berry's target from the standing position where he placed runner-up out of all shooters. James was high scorer for Norton in all but the kneeling position.

Norton BB Gun Team honored during "Parade of Champions"

Under the watchful eye of head coach Cameron Archer, Norton's Dylan Goss squeezes off another round during his excellent 96 score from the kneeling position. It was the best score from this position by any Norton team member.

Statistics officer Nancy Becker from the Riley-Pottawatomie County Straight Shooters, Manhattan, checks on a target with Norton scorekeeper Joni Berry.

Norton's Erin Archer eyes the target as she fires from the kneeling position. Observing is Norton head coach Cameron Archer. Erin was the second highest scorer for the Norton team.

With new discounts and rates, now is the time to take another look.
