Food auction sees another successful year at the 2012 Norton County Fair

The 2012 4-H Food Auction and Sale was held on July 24 at the 4-H Building. The Food Auction has become a tradition at the Norton County Fair. Funds that are raised during this event are then used for many related events and activities that involve the 4-H Council programs.

Again, this year some 4-H members who do not sell an animal are given the opportunity to sell an item and keep the proceeds themselves. There were 16 4-H'ers that took part in this sale. The total amount paid by the buyers for these 4-H products was $1,690.

The 2012 4-H Food Auction was conducted by Don McMullen and Duane McEwen. Support for the 4-H program was shown when the auction was over and the bids for 40 items totaled $4,417.50. The net for the 4-H Council was $2,727.50. Last year there were 36 items that totaled $4,953.

The 4-H Council would like to recognize those individuals and business who contributed at the 4-H Food Auction. Those contributors are 1st Security Bank, 1st State Bank, Ag Valley Co-op, Almena State Bank, Bailey Electric, Beverly Kindler, Brooks Farms, Kenneth Carter, Christmas Decorations & Gifts, D&M Service, Wentz Service, Daffer Construction, Doug's Alignment, Engels Sales & Service, Elements of Massage, Farm Bureau Financial Services, Gary Bruinekool, Hays Farms, Herbie Johnson Construction, Jamboree Foods, Jerry's Body Shop, Kansasland Tire, Lenora Rainbow Coalition, Maze Ranch, McEwen Auction, Merriss Brooks, New Age Industries, Russ' Jewelry, The Bank, Town & Country Kitchen, United Northwest Federal Credit Union, Ron Zwickle and Zwickle Accounting.

All the Contributors make it possible for the 4-H'ers to participate and learn more about Home Economics-related events and other activities through the resource materials, events and programs made available with these funds.

The committee for the Auction of the 4-H food products were Cheri Brooks, Lee Ann Shearer, Jeana Cozad and Shana Harting.

Madison DuBois tells auctioneer Don McMullen all about her no bake chocolate cookies that were sold to The Bank for $140 at the auction to help her 4-H group.
