Raffle winners were Sonya Gillespie, DVD player; Keith Muirhead, surround sound system; and Marge Hartzog, TV.

The lunch and dinner were both well attended. Following the supper and crowning of the queen, Stacy Hartzog, emcee for the parade and day's events, gave a very moving talk chronicling the day that firefighters have named "Hell Day," the day that fires burned over 7,000 acres in Kansas. He gave a rendition of "Hell Day" based on the accounts of Stann Hartzog, Jennings Assistant Fire Chief. Stacy expressed his pride in the firemen and how everyone came together that day to protect Decatur County.

The evening concluded with an auction of items donated by area and local businesses and individuals and a street dance, the music provided by Mobil Music Express.

Brothers Stratton (3) and Axton (2) McKenna, sons of Jason and Chandra McKenna of Norton, were ready to drive their trucks in the Jennings Fun Day parade Saturday afternoon.

JENNINGS NEWS

We received a beautiful rain Thursday late afternoon and again on Friday evening. The moisture was a welcome sight and we received no hail with it. Saturday morning was nice and cool for the 21st Fireman's Funday. A large crowd gathered for all the festivities of the day. Many residents had family members visiting and enjoying the day.

On Sunday, Kim Nutting, Bogue, a lay speaker, came to United Methodist Church to speak since Rev. Barbara Patterson was on vacation with family. We thank Kim for coming to our church. Allan and Sherri Carter, Overland Park, attended church with his mother, Rachel Carter.

Playing cards at the Sunflower Senior Center on Wednesday were Eleanor Morel, Diane Carter, Alice Wagoner, Ann Szeweistis, Carol Carter, Stan Shaw, Wayne Cressler, Ramona Shaw, Scott Taylor, Agnes Wahlmeier and Louise Cressler.

Martin LaRue is home from the hospital and was one of the men riding the American Legion float in the parade Saturday.
