

Are you at risk?

In conjunction with HaysMed and the Susan G. Komen Foundation, Norton County Hospital hosted a breast cancer awareness event Thursday evening at the Prairie Land Electric meeting room. About 60 women gathered to learn about the risks, signs and treatments for breast cancer. Featured speakers were Dr. Glenda Maurer from the Norton Medical Clinic and Dr. Anne O'Dea, a breast oncologist at HaysMed. Pictured, Dr. Maurer discusses risk factors for breast cancer at the awareness event.

LYLE NEWS

A great crowd came to the hog roast, a benefit for little Eric Kuhlman, three year old cancer patient, on Saturday evening.

Toots Magers traveled to Judy Easton's in Quinter, and from there went to Abilene for a weekend visit.

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen arrived home on Tuesday after spending time in Colorado and Nebraska. He has started picking corn.

June Jolly has been making quilt tops from scarves, and has made 27 so far. She attended the KT Club on Thursday.

Von Sumner is in Kansas City with her daughter, Amy Archer, who is in the hospital there.

There will be graveside funeral services for Patricia Schwab at 4 p.m. on Thursday in Oberlin. Pat, originally of the Lyle area, had been a resident of the Andbe Home in Norton for several years.

Charlotte Plotts had surgery on her foot that had not done well since an earlier surgery. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Carol Moye and great-granddaughters, Kylie and Skylar; and Veda and Dennis Wood visited with Dixie Wood and Sheryl and Richard Patterson in McCook, Neb. on Friday. Sheryl and Richard took Dixie back to her home in Canadian, Okla. on Saturday. Dixie visited with Donna Huff and other friends while there.

The Lyle church people were pleasantly surprised to have Eileen [Huff] Hazelbaker of Grandville, Idaho join them on Sunday morning.

Update on my injury: yes, it was a fractured tibia, but it is doing all right, I am still to elevate it, wear the brace, and not bear weight on it for a while yet. Thanks and God bless for the help and good wishes from everyone.

JENNINGS NEWS

Wayne and Louise Cressler enjoyed having their daughter, Patsy and Don Harold, Grand Junction, Colo., visit from Friday until Monday morning. Also visiting on Saturday and Sunday were their son, Russell Cressler, Bison and Mary Kinser, rural Jennings. It is always nice to have children come home to see us. On Sunday afternoon Patsy and Don went to Norton to visit his mother, Stella Harold.

Playing cards at the Sunflower Senior Center on Wednesday afternoon were: Ann Szeweistis, Agnes Wahlmeier, Carol Carter, Alice Wagoner, Diane Carter, Eleanor Morel, Louise Cressler, Stan and Ramona Shaw. Cards are played every Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the center.

Norton Correctional men will be working in town on Monday and Tuesday, the Sept 17 and 18. The City of Jennings appreciates the work these men do for our town.

Robert Papp is doing some remodeling at Terri Hanke's home. We see boards being thrown out the upstairs window this morning.

Glenda Johnson is home from the hospital again and feeling better.

Raymond Yahne, Dodge City, former Jennings resident was put on the prayer chain. He was taken to Wichita hospital this past week.

The Jennings United Methodist women met Wednesday morning to clean the church. Those helping were: Kathy Nauer, Kay Brown, Helen Rhodes, Lila Jennings and Louise Cressler.

We are all enjoying the cool nights. It really feels like fall weather.

NOW BOOKING

Meet your Protein & Mineral needs for just 17¢ a day.

Protect against Scours for an additional 2¢ a day

- per head per day (200 lb. tub) -

The goal is to utilize as much forage as possible. Due to the drought conditions, protein and energy will be higher in stalks this year. The Availa 4 mineral packages are a great asset to the tubs in these dry conditions. If your wondering how your neighbors cattle are so shiny, he's probably feeding an MLS tub.

We can also help you with Distillers Grain, Chemical, Cattle Ration Work. If you have Grain to buy we would love the opportunity to put some Money in your pocket.

Good Samaritan Hospital

Healthcare you can believe in.

"Good Samaritan Hospital is prepared to continue providing top-notch care into the future, and the new facility that includes the Ron and Carol Cope Heart Center is a concrete example of that. Every day we match scientific knowledge with the art of caring.

"Patients in the new surgery department benefit from advanced technology and improved patient flow, resulting in a higher level of care for every patient. This expansion allows us to provide excellent care to those in need.

"We believe in Good Samaritan Hospital."
