The Northern Valley Junior High boys basketball team tipped off the season on Saturday, Nov. 10 at the Brewster Pre-season Tournament in Brewster with the Huskies earning two impressive victories.

A-team Boys (2-0)

Northern Valley's first game was against Golden Plains, a contest the Huskies won easily, 55 to eight.

Riley Sides led the team in scoring with 24 points, Drake Shearer scored 13 points, Caden Kinderknecht scored 10 points, and Carson Wallace and Damian Wellman added four points each.

Northern Valley would be tested a lot more in its second game but held on for an 11 point victory, 39-28, over

Grinnell-Wheatland.

Again, Riley Sides led the Huskies in scoring with 14 points, Caden Kinderknecht scored 12 points, Carson Wallace scored eight points and Drake Shearer had five points.

"The Northern Valley Junior High boys basketball team got the season off to a great start in the Brewster Pre-season Tournament. The Huskies played well as a team with all five starters contributing to the wins," said head coach Jim Cole. "Riley Sides set a school record by hitting six 3-pointers in the first game. Carson Wallace led the team in rebounding with 26 for the two games."

B-team Boys (2-0)

The B-team had two dominating wins, the first, a 32-4 throttling of Tripains-Brewster.

Nick Stutsman led the Huskies in scoring with 10 points, followed by Brady Rogers with six points, Kale Cox four points, Ross Cole four points, Caden Bach four points, Aidan Baird two points and Briely Yocum with two points.

The second game was much like the first, with the Huskies winning easily, 30-3, over Grinnell-Wheatland.

Caden Bach was the Huskies leading scorer with 14 points, Ross Cole and Briely Yocum added four points each and Kale Cox, Brady Rogers, Aidan Baird and Nick Stutsman each had two points.

"The B-team also won both of their games. The Huskies had balanced scoring with seven players scoring points in each game," said Cole.
