

OBITUARIES

Eric Danny Milnes

Feb. 8, 1959 - Feb. 12, 2013

Eric Danny Milnes was born on February 8, 1959 and raised in Denver, Colo. In 1986 he moved to Norcat, to live closer to his father, John Sr. and brother, John Jr. Eric married Sheree (McKie) Milnes on April 28, 1989. They made their home in Norcat for 24 years before he became unexpectedly ill on Jan. 8 and passed away on Feb. 12 at the age of 54.

Eric was preceded in death by his father, John Lee Milnes, mother, Helen Mary (Chavez) Milnes, and one brother, Rudy Anaya.

Survivors include his wife, Sheree; brothers, John and Elaine Milnes, Jimmy Milnes, Zachary Milnes and Tanya Manning; sisters, Maryann Navarro, Monica and Felix Espinoza, Linda Hamilton, Robin and Jesse Fuller, and Cyndie Milnes.

He will be dearly missed by his family and all of his nieces and nephews.

Services will be planned at a later date.

Georgia Lee Elliott

Dec. 4, 1923 - Feb. 6, 2013

Georgia Lee Elliott, daughter of Franklin and Orpha (Stagner) Elliott, was born Dec. 4, 1923, in Plainville, Kansas, and passed away at the Norton County Hospital in Norton, Kansas, on Feb. 6, 2013, at the age of 89.

Georgia grew up in Plainville and attended the local schools. As an adult, she moved several times ending up in Denver, Colo., where she was a homemaker, raising her three daughters, Jean, Judi, and Marlene. She also enjoyed having a home child care business. She later moved to Minnesota to be near family where she lived for over 15 years and then returned to Norton where she enjoyed being close to her family that lived there.

Georgia loved her family and friends and loved to make people laugh and smile. She commented that she wanted to be remembered for making others laugh and she definitely was able to accomplish this. She was very proud of her Irish history and enjoyed dancing and singing.

Survivors include: her three daughters, Jean Down, Norton; Judi, and husband, Tom Barnick, Hinckley, Minnesota; and Marlene and husband, Ward Sumner, Norton; nine grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; other relatives and friends.

Georgia was preceded in death by her parents, one grandson, one brother, and six sisters.

Due to family circumstances, services will be held at a later date.

A memorial has been established to the Georgia Elliott Memorial Fund.

Arrangements are with the Enfield Funeral Home in Norton.

Jo Quinn Murphy

Oct. 23, 1952 - Feb. 12, 2013

Jo Quinn Murphy, 60, of North Kelly Street, Statesville, N.C., passed away on Tuesday, Feb. 12, 2013, at the Gordon Hospice House following a lengthy battle with cancer. She was born in Oxford, Neb., on Oct. 23, 1952.

She was preceded in death by her father, Howard R. Quinn, and is survived by her mother, Ruth Quinn of Oxford, Neb.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by two sons, Eli (Mollie) Murphy of Greenville, S.C., and Justin (Daniel) Murphy, of Daecusville, S.C.; daughter Molly Murphy, of Statesville, N.C.; brother, Clifton (Dana) Quinn of Manhattan, Kan.; sister, Jean Ann (Royce) Wilson of Almena, Kan.; three granddaughters, Haylee, Mya, and Garrison.

Jo worked for WFMX Radio for many years before establishing her own business as a licensed massage therapist where she was focused on the comfort and healing of others. She was also very active in Fifth Street Ministries and My Sister's House. Jo was loved by many and never met a stranger.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Fifth Street Ministries, My Sister's House, and Hospice of Iredell County.

There will be a private family service.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.daviefuneralservice.com.

Be my Valentine!

Fifth graders at Eisenhower Elementary School exchanged Valentine's cards and treats during Mrs. Bonita Slipke's math class on Thursday afternoon. Students in every grade celebrated Valentine's Day with chocolate or a tasty treat.

Fulbright Scholarships available

The American Institute For Foreign Study (AIFS), a leading study abroad organization, is pleased to announce that its' Shakespeare's Globe Education Theater Program has been selected by the Fulbright Commission as one of their prestigious Summer Institutes for the next three years.

Three Fulbright scholarship winners will attend AIFS' Shakespeare's Globe Education Theater Program each year from 2013 to 2015. Students that win the award will have the majority of their program costs covered including round-trip airfare, tuition and fees, accommodations, insurance, social program and meals.

On the Shakespeare's Globe Education Theater Program, students spend three weeks at Shakespeare's historic Globe Theater in London, where they have the unique opportunity to study intensively with actors, directors, and other theater practitioners. The program runs from June 17 through July 5.

"We're delighted that American students will have the opportunity to experience life in our exciting capital city," remarks Michael Scott-Kline, Director of the Fulbright Program. "The American Institute For Foreign Study Summer Institute at Shakespeare's Globe Theater will offer everything that we would hope for in a Fulbright exchange: a stimulating academic component, a rich and immersive cultural experience and an enthusiastic host."

Students applying for the Fulbright award should submit their application materials directly to the Fulbright Commission. The application deadline is March 11, 2013. For more information, application criteria or to apply, visit www.aifsabroad.com/england/londonglobe/summer/fulbright.asp.

"It is an honor for the Fulbright Commission to recognize AIFS and our Shakespeare Theater Program," states William L. Gertz, President and CEO of AIFS. "We are proud to bring Shakespeare to American students through this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity of studying and performing on the very stage in which he worked at the historic Globe Theater."

AIFS is one of seven college summer programs designated by the Fulbright Commission as Summer Institutes. AIFS' Shakespeare's Globe Education Theater Program was also given the Summer Institute honor in 2012.

The U.S.-U.K. Fulbright Commission offers special Summer Institutes for U.S. citizens to study in the U.K. These summer programs provide the opportunity for U.S. undergraduates (ages 18 and over), with at least two years of undergraduate study left to complete, to go to the U.K. on a three-, four- or six-week academic cultural summer program.

In addition to Shakespeare's Globe Education Theater Program, AIFS offers study abroad programs in Argentina, Australia, Austria, Botswana, Brazil, Chile, China, Costa Rica, Cuba, Czech Republic, England, France, Germany, Greece, India, Ireland, Italy, New Zealand, Peru, Russia, South Africa, Spain and Turkey. All AIFS programs are comprehensive and include housing, meals, transcripts, insurance and built-in cultural activities and excursions. Additional scholarships and financial aid are also available.

To learn more about AIFS, contact David Mauro at (800) 727-2437, ext. 5163 or email: info@aifs.com or visit www.aifsabroad.com.
