Delbert Wayne 'Red' Berry

April 20, 1928 - July 28, 2013

Delbert Wayne "Red" Berry, son of Newel H. "Happy" and Fern (Georgeson) Berry, was born April 20, 1928, on the family farm north of Lenora, and passed away at the Norton County Hospital in Norton, on July 28, 2013, at the age of 85.

Delbert grew up on the farm where he was born, graduated from Lenora Rural High School with the class of 1946, and attended Kansas State University, until joining the U.S. Navy in 1951.

On July 15, 1954, he and Patricia Hoffnagle were united in marriage in Denver, Colo. They made their home in California until Delbert was honorably discharged from the Navy in 1955, then returned to Kansas where they lived on Bow Creek in Graham County before moving to Lenora where Delbert farmed with his father.

Delbert was a member and Past Master of the Masonic Lodge, a member and Past Worthy Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star, and served for many years as treasurer of the Prairie Dog Shrine Club. He was a member of the Harmonson-Redd American Legion Post #63, and served on the boards of a number of organizations including the USD 213 Board of Education, the Andbe Home, the Lenora Volunteer Fire Department, the Lenora Co-op, and Highland Township. In retirement, Delbert and Pat enjoyed "snow-birding" in Arizona and traveled within and outside the United States, but throughout his life, family was most important.

Survivors include: wife, Patricia Berry, Norton; daughter, Dawn Berry, Logan; brother, Joe Berry, Norton; nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Delbert was preceded in death by three infant siblings, his parents, and his elder brother, Hardy.

Funeral services will be Friday, Aug. 2 at 10:30 a.m., at the United Parish Church in Lenora. Burial will be at Lenora South Cemetery.

Memorial contributions are suggested to Shriner's Children's Hospital and St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Logan Labor Day celebration set

The 37th Annual Logan Labor Day celebration, sponsored by the Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum and Dane G. Hansen Foundation, is planned for Sunday, Sept. 1, 2013, Highway 9, Logan Golf Course, Logan, Kansas with a full day of activities. There is no admission fee for this event.

The Logan Labor Day celebration begins with a Logan Chamber sponsored remote fly-in, and at 9 a.m. sand volleyball tournament. The Logan Chamber of Commerce food booth will open at 8 a.m. and the Sno-Cone Shack will begin serving at 10 a.m. Main Street Pizza will also be serving pizza slices. Vehicles will roll in for the Dane G. Bales Junior Memorial Car Show which starts at 10 a.m. and ends at 4 p.m. A shuttle will be running back and forth to the Dane G. Hansen Museum to view the exhibit, "Cast Paper Sculptures." The Siruta Pedal Pullers State Sanctioned Kid's Tractor Pull starts at 2 p.m. Children's entertainment during the day includes King of the Mountain, 18-foot slide and castle bouncer (9:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.), the RTS Express train (2-4 p.m.). Scout groups will be conducting activities throughout the day, for all children.

The Prairie Dusters Mounted Drill Team from the Logan area is offering horse rides beginning at 3 p.m. and at 4:30 p.m. they will demonstrate their precision drill routines. This is a popular group and will thrill the crowds with their costumes, horses and flag ceremonies.

Appearing on stage at 5:30 p.m. will be the "Dueling Pianos." This group of musicians from Denver, Colo., are more than just music; it's crowd interaction, comedy, and fun all in one. Request your favorite song. The crowd determines what is played. No two shows are ever the same. Caz Bzdek and Paul Seiz will perform the entire show on portable baby grand piano replicas.

Starting a 6:30 p.m. there will be free tethered hot air balloon rides for family enjoyment. View the country side around the Logan area from this great attraction, weather permitting.

At 7:30 p.m. "Jimmy Dee and The Fabulous Destinations" This high energy show, featuring major hits from early 1960s, propelled the band into one of the most popular groups to ever perform in western Kansas. Performing at clubs and dance halls throughout the western half of the state, the group routinely "picks the house" every weekend, with many of their loyal supporters traveling upwards to 100 miles to attend a performance.

Following the evening entertainment a laser light show will light up the sky around the Logan Golf Course. All this and more happens at the 37th Annual Logan Labor Day celebration, Highway 9, Logan, Kansas, Sunday, Sept. 1, 2013. All these activities and no admission fees. Come early and stay late.
