

Norton tennis team takes runner-up at Hays Invitational

By DICK BOYD nortontelegram@nwkansas.com Coach Jim Green's Norton Community High School varsity tennis team turned in a great performance on Thursday...

we played them again in the finals. This time, we had a dominating 6-0 victory! In No.2 doubles, Riekele and Molly were awesome...

The two doubles teams from Norton were really on top of their game, winning both divisions. Seniors Ashley Hildebrand and Jessica White won No.1 doubles...

Junior Brooke Sumner placed third in No.1 singles and sophomore Audrie Burge finished fourth at No.2 singles.

"It was another hot day for playing tennis," said coach Green.

"We did get some cloud cover for part of the meet, which helped a lot. We played a bracketed double elimination tournament and finished second on the strength of our doubles teams."

"Ashley and Jessica marched through the No.1 doubles bracket. They had a tough match in the first round with Victoria's Bailey Hobbs and Breanna Leiker. They hung in there, didn't give up and came from behind to win 6-4...

"In No.1 singles, Brooke lost 6-2 to Victoria's Brooke Schmidt, who went on to win the bracket. In her second match, Brooke won 6-2 over Rhett Brown, Russell. She made it to the finals of the back side versus Julie Balzar, Hays, but lost 6-2 to place third.

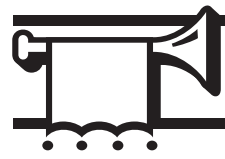

"Audrie lost her first match at No.2 singles to Maegan Karlin, Victoria, by a 6-2 score. In the second round, she was up against Carolyn Patrick who she had lost to the Saturday before in WaKeeney. It was a close match that went to a tiebreaker. Audrie won the tiebreaker 7-5. She lost her next match versus Madison Rogers, Colby, by a 6-2 score and placed fourth.

Next action

The Norton varsity will play in the Phillipsburg Quad today, beginning at 1 p.m.

Competing, in addition to Norton and Phillipsburg, will be teams from Russell and Trego Community.

"Colby won the back side so
